Anti-Furries

Anti-furries are a group of individuals who seek to turn furries away from the furry community by making them see the wrong in the community that they may not have been aware of, they do this through various forms of media or interaction throughout the community.

History of Anti-Furries

The earliest Anti-Furries can be traced back to various Usenet sites (chat rooms) in 1998, over a decade after furries began sprouting as a topic in the mid-1980s. However, earlier examples may be unknown due to the mass loss of old web services to the rapidly expanding modern internet. [1]

On August 15th, 2005 the wikifur page on Anti-Furries was created, being a generalization of people who "find furry to be repulsive, especially any aspects having to do with furry sexuality" as well as being jokingly dubbed as "Mundane" and "Sane People." However, this would be changed a day later due to the article being labeled as "Trollish," to a simple generalization of Anti-furries being Burned furs, a sub-variant of furry that wished to remove all sexualization from the fandom. [2] [3]

A few days later, the page redirected to 2 other major Anti-Furry websites at the time,[4] "Something Awful" and "Crush! Yiff! Destroy!", With the first going into Nazi-induced madness in late 2003/early 2004,[5] ultimately falling more and more into obscurity, and the latter slowly being overrun by increasingly overwhelming numbers of furry accounts, until it was bought out by a furry on the 31st of March, 2010.[6]

In 2006, the website http://www.antifurrycoalition.org, was brought online spreading a message that reads: "The Anti-Furry Coalition® is an organization dedicated to the protection of families and communities through education and community action." The AFC prided itself on this sentiment, providing further information on furries, although typically only from a personal standpoint, as well as actively encouraging physical action through word, posters, and the spread of knowledge, with their self motto being "Knowledge Is The Beginning."[7]

The AFC would further expand, moving onto a Myspace site in 2007 where they would further promote their stance, as well as the "AFC manifesto." Eventually this would garner the attention of Wikifur in 2008 which would begin documenting their websites and online traffic.[8] In November 2009, AFC would create a Flickr account where they would upload 29 photos all on the 9th of March 2009. Consisting of professionally taken photos of two people in AFC marked hoodies, as well as various AFC flyers and a childs bedroom. [9] [10]

Anti-Furries

History of Anti-Furries

In Febuary 2011, a petition would be started to shut down the AFC and all subsequent Anti-furry groups, claiming;

"Dear Furry Persecutors, This mainly targets the Anti Furry Coalition (AFC), but goes out to all those who unjustly discriminate furries. We have gained 1,000,000 signatures on a petition, and hereby ask you to please shut down your organization against furries. We have harmed no one, and would like to be treated fairly. That means no more anti-furry signs, no "Escape the Furry" mazes for children, etc." [11]

The petition, as of Febuary 28th, 2025, has gathered 128 signatures out of its required 1,000,000.[12] Although it failed to reach its goal, it would partially succeed in its objective, with AFC dismantling its website on February 20th 2012.[8]

Over the next several years, Anti-furries would be reflected by their article, with the occasional uncoordinated trolling and vandalism of the article, alongside the few grammatical changes and the various new links for newly sprouted-up groups with generalized hate towards the furry fandom.[13]

In November of 2018 the "Gamers Vs Furries War" grew in popularity on TikTok and YouTube, massively increasing public knowledge of Anti-furries for even their existence, as well as their goals.[14] But it also allowed many hate groups such as Nazis and racists to hide behind Anti furries. The number of vandalisms rapidly rose even with the preinstalled protection of the page.[13]

On the 18th of July, 2020, the page was reinforced, only allowing authorized users to edit the page, and automatically flagging all edits to site Admins. This only moderately slowed vandalism on the page.[15]

On 10:24, 10 February 2021 the first recorded instance of the Anti-Furry flag was Archived via Wikipedia and Internet Archive, it was originally dated April 1st, 2020, and credited to Joseph Skerrnov, but uploaded by Frank Skerrnov. It was labeled as follows; "This flag is often used by members of the "Anti Furry" movement, and is the official flag."[16]

In 2022, Anti-furry activity on YouTube massively spiked due to various "Anti-furry memes" appearing all over the internet, mainly YouTube and Tik-Tok, furthering activity and growing into a coherent culture on various platforms of communication, primarily Discord, YouTube, and Reddit.[17]

Anti-Furries

Nazi Anti-Furries

"But Anti-Furries are all Nazis!"

According to a manually done YouTube channel review on 2/21/2024, only 3% of Anti-Furry channels would be labeled as overwhelmingly "Nazi," whereas 15% have only singular images within thumbnails or channel icons, Although 82% of channels show no signs of any form of being a "Nazi." [18] [19]

"If Anti-Furries aren't Nazis, then why do so many speak German?"

Anti-furries come from all places, all over the globe, but the movement is primarily in English. The countries that speak the most English and have the highest access to the internet are the USA, the United Kingdom, and Germany. [20] [21]

Anti-Furries

The Flag

"But the Anti-furry flag looks like a Neo-Nazi flag!"

The Anti-Furry flag may be commonly associated with Nazis due to the coloration, but the only Neo-Nazi flag it resembles in both color and layout, is the "Black Sun" flag, more specifically the 2016 version, 4 years before the first instance of the common Anti-furry flag was archived.[16] After the 2016 Neo-Nazi riot in Russia, the Red and black flag background was replaced with a solid black background and Red/White sigil. Completely removing the resemblance to the Anti-furry flag.[22] [23]

Alternatively, the Anti-furry flag also resembles one out of several unofficial Belarusian Anarchist flags, although the instance of the three-lined flag was only seen once, out of the hundreds of other photos depicting the much more common, diagonal split flag. [25] Similarly to the Black-sun Neo-Nazi group, this three-lined variant was only seen once in 2016 and has not emerged since, leaving a half-decade gap between this flag, and the Anti-furry flags' archival. However the flag has also been traced back to a ultranationalist group from the 1990s, dubbed "Pravy Revansh" or "The Right Revenge."[24] Although they too would decide to drop this flag, only using it for two years from 1994-1996 before changing to the design of white-red-white highly reminiscent of the Belarusian Democratic Republic.[26] [27] Despite being a anarchist group, The Right Revenge heavily believed in peaceful action "without blood and victims."[28] [29]

It also resembles the flags of; Amsterdam,[31] Trinidad and Tobago,[32] and Puigpelat.[30] But most notably, it resembles the unofficial flag for fallen firefighters in the USA.[34] [35] [36]

"But the flag was made by a Neo-Nazi!"

According to the Internet Archive, Joseph Skerrnov, the supposed creator of the flag, was not a Neo-Nazi or had intentions to base the flag on the Neo-Nazi "Black Sun" flag. The only reference to Neo-Nazi esc behavior amongst Joseph was his statement on how the movement accepts any political affiliation, on which he states; "... it doesn't matter if you're Communist, Nazi, Democrat, Republican, or whatever, it just matters that we all come together and try to end the furry fandom once and for all." This statement promotes the stance that Joseph was not associating with politics or political affiliation, and simply welcomed whoever was willing to join the cause.[37] [38]

What Are Furries?

Furries are defined as “An enthusiast for animal characters with human characteristics, in particular, a person who dresses up in costume as such a character or uses one as an avatar online.”[39] [40]

- Oxford Dictionaries

The history of anthropomorphic animals as a concept has been in humanity’s stories for decades, commonly portrayed as mythical creatures or Gods/Goddesses in various civilizations.[41]

Prologue

Anthropomorphism (from the Greek ánthrōpos, lit. "human", and morphē, lit. "form" or "shape") is the attribution of human characteristics to non-human entities, such as objects or animals, and can be found in the earliest examples of human art. The Löwenmensch figurine dates as early as the Upper Paleolithic period, or around 35,000 years ago, and is the oldest known work of figurative art.[42]

The Tale of Two Brothers (c. 1200 BC)[43] is one of the earliest known examples of transformation, with the god Bata turning into a bull. Hesiod's Works and Days (c. 700 BC)[44] features a fable known as The Hawk and the Nightingale and is an early example of a parable. The story was expanded upon in Aesop's Fables (c. 550 BC).[45]

In 1890, Palmer Cox wrote "Funny Animals," which is the earliest known use of the term “Furry” concerning anthropomorphic animals.[46]

The novels of Felix Salten published between 1926 and 1945 established the precedents of what would later be called furry fiction, the most famous example of these books is Bambi.[47]

What Are Furries?

Start of the Fandom

Somewhat more relaxed attitudes towards art and experimentation in the 1960s and early 1970s saw the use of controversial concepts in fantasy animal stories become more common such as explicit content, and sexualized characters,[48] attracting increased interest from older fans, the most notable example being Fritz the Cat.[49]

The furry fandom officially found its roots in the underground comix movement of the 1970s, a genre of comic books that depict explicit content.[50] In 1976, a pair of cartoonists created the amateur press association “Vootie,” which was dedicated to animal-focused art. Many of its featured works contained adult themes, such as "Omaha" The Cat Dancer, which contained explicit sex, with the original writer commenting “He began developing the concept for "Omaha" the Cat Dancer after one of the magazine's contributors said that there was not enough sex in the genre.”[51] Vootie grew a small following over the next several years due to the exotic content, and its contributors began meeting at science fiction and comics conventions.[52]

Robert Crumb's dissatisfaction with the film adaptation of Fritz the Cat led to him subsequently killing off the character in 1972. After this, there was a lack of 'funny animal' characters outside of mainstream houses such as Disney. Minneapolis artists Ken Fletcher and Reed Waller, hoping to fill a void surrounded by comic book superheroes, decided to found an Amateur Press Association, or APA, called Vootie on February 29, 1976. The intention was to gather talented artists in Minnesota and explore the potential of using furry animals in adult situations.[53]

By the early 1980s, Vootie's membership contributions had become increasingly sporadic, and editorial laxness was just as apparent. Timothy Fay would attempt to keep the group alive by creating his own APA, Revolutionary Vootie, in 1983 with the help of Marc Schirmeister. Although they received some submissions, they needed more interest. Vootie's cessation that year led to Schirmeister founding another APA, Rowrbrazzle, soon afterward. This transition between Vootie and Rowrbrazzle is considered by Patten, a fandom historian, to be a crucial evolutionary point between funny animal fandom and furry fandom.[54]

What Are Furries?

Maturing of the Fandom

Judy Niver, one of the founders of the C/FO, hosted a party in her room at the San Diego Comic Convention in 1985. The Rowrbrazzle APA group was also having a party in the same hotel, and there was much overlap in attendance. As a result, it became a tradition to have at least one furry party during the convention. In more recent years, the Comic-Con party has been called CritterConDiego and Califur Diego.[55]

By 1988, the furry parties at West Coast conventions such as San Diego Comic-Con and Westercon had grown immensely, to the point where even double suites were too small. Merlino and O'Riley, encouraged by the large attendance, decided to expand on the furry party concept and host a prototype convention for furry fans. ConFurence Zero was hosted in Costa Mesa, California, on January 21-22, 1989, and had a total of 65 attendees.[56] Lasting until April 2003, the convention continued to be the premier international gathering place of furry fans until 1999, when it tied for attendance with the up-and-coming Anthrocon.[57]

At the 54th World Science Fiction Convention in 1996, held in Anaheim, California, the Furry Fandom Lounge was organized by the ConFurence committee as a five-day furry programming track. The general Worldcon program schedule publicized the furry parties, panels, and exhibits, which included a glass-encased "History of Furry Fandom" display by David Bliss.[58]

In July 1997, Albany Anthrocon was first held in Albany, New York, later becoming Anthrocon, which would continue to grow into the largest convention in the modern day.[57]

What Are Furries?

The Spread Into the Web

Virtual environments, such as MUCKs (Online Role-Playing Games), soon became the most popular places on the net for furry fans to meet and communicate.[59] One of the oldest and largest MUCKs in existence is FurryMUCK.[60] One of the newest virtual environments to attract furry fans is Second Life, which would later be involved in Neo-nazi activity connected to the furry community.[61]

The first Usenet (Chat room) newsgroups began to appear in the early 1990s. alt.fan.furry was created in late 1990 and eventually spawned several additional newsgroups, such as alt.lifestyle.furry which was created in 1996.[62] Furrynet, an unofficial Usenet hierarchy of fur newsgroups which was created in the late 1990s. In 2000, there was an unsuccessful attempt to create rec.arts.furry, which would have brought furry fandom into the primary Usenet hierarchy, failing by only 8 votes.[63]

In the late 1990s, David J. Rust (aka Sylvan), attempted to document the internal social dynamics and trends within Furry fandom. While originally intended to be a fan film documentary, the research he conducted from 1996 - 1997 was eventually collated into The Sociology of Furry Fandom, a Subculture Study, the first academic study of furry sociology.[64] [65]

A schism that had been developing in the fandom for some time, had reached a boiling point in the aftermath of ConFurence 8,[68] which quickly became notorious for a variety of sexualized incidents. Previous years had seen several similar incidents; complaints about poor public behavior were repeatedly brought to the convention's staff to be addressed. As a rule, however, these complaints were ignored, with the result that the offended parties began airing their grievances in such forums as alt.fan.furry as well as local news stations.[66] [67]

Backlash emerged from various groups who either mocked the complaints or defended those engaging in offensive behavior. Accusations of religious intolerance and puritanism were often directed at the complainers. This led to the creation of the Burned Furs and, in response, the Freezing Furs, sparking a flamewar about the increasing public display of fetishes in the fandom. The Burned Furs argued that such matters should remain private, while their opponents defended open sexuality or claimed Burned Furs were only attracting bad press. To date, the only mentions of Freezing furs have only come from their opposition's complaints in interviews. Alongside this, a small group called Furry Peace advocated for tolerance but largely stayed out of the conflict.[6] [69][254]

What Are Furries?

The Spread Into the Web

The schism climaxed when ConFurence 10 saw a change in ownership.[71] The new chairman, Darrel Exline, was a Burned Fur, and although the convention remained open to all ratings of material, there was a mass boycott by fans who believed that they would be persecuted if they attended. The convention also changed its date and venue, contributing to a much smaller turnout than normal. ConFurence continued for several outings, but never recovered its earlier membership levels and ultimately closed its doors.[70]

Meanwhile, numerous other furry conventions had been springing up already, several in direct response to the mismanagement of ConFurence before CF10. Almost universally, these adopted specific and stringent public behavior policies, leading to a sharp drop in incidents of public sexualization at furry conventions. This, in turn, slowly turned around the fandom's press image by making these incidents into "old news." The poor press continued on the fringe from time to time, as with MTV's "Sex2K" special,[73] as well as certain TV episodes of "CSI" and "St. Elsewhere",[74] but the mainstream image of furries slowly began to be replaced with news coverage of furry conventions where the most interesting thing to film were fursuit parades.[72]

In 1999, at the North American Science Fiction Convention in Anaheim, California, the Furry Fandom Lounge reflected on 15 years of fandom.[75] That year also saw the launch of Further Confusion in the Bay Area of San Francisco, California, which eventually became the second-largest furry convention in the world.[76]

Furry conventions exploded in the 2000s, with over 30 cons starting up, so far. In comparison, the 1990s saw 13 cons, with all but two of them continuing after 1995.[77]

Zoophilia

Beastiality, or as it is more commonly referred to, zoophilia, is a sexual bias towards animals that are not of human specification, such as dogs, cats, etc. It has been a major controversy in the furry community throughout its existence.

Statistics

- Sociology of Furry Fandom (Rust, J. D., 2001) 2% of 360 respondents stated they were zoophiles.[78]
- Furry Sociological Survey (Evans, K., 2008) 17% of 276 respondents stated they were zoophiles.[79] [80]
- 2008 Furry Survey (Osaki, A., 2008) 18.4% of 6093 respondents stated they were zoophiles.[81]
- 2009 Furry Survey (Osaki, A., 2009) 13.9% of 9024 respondents stated they were zoophiles.[82]
- 2010 Furry Survey (Osaki, A., 2010) 13.6% of 4895 respondents stated they were zoophiles.[83]
- 2011 Furry Survey (Osaki, A., 2011) 13.3% of 4365 respondents stated they were zoophiles.[84]
- 2012 Furry Survey (Osaki, A., 2012) 14.9% of 3267 respondents stated they were zoophiles.[85]
- 2019 Studies (Roberts, S., et al., 2019) 6.9% out of an unspecified number of respondents stated they were zoophiles.[86] [87]
- Male Furries (Hsu, K., Bailey, J. M., 2019) 46.71% of 334 respondents have shown signs that they have sexual attraction to real animals.[88] [89]
- What Are Furries? (fek, 2020) 14.3% of 4611 respondents stated they were zoophiles.[90]

The raw average of the percentages is approximately 16.1%. The weighted average of the percentages, considering the sample sizes, is approximately 14.98%[91] This is relative to the estimated average zoophilia in the general population of 2%, 7.5 times less than that within the fandom.[91] [92]

Bestiality is a felony or serious crime in most states and countries.[93] [94] [95] [96] [97] [98] [99]

Exotic Exposure

331 out of 334 male furries in a survey stated they had some sexual motivation for being furries.[100] [101]

Another states that 87.3% view exotic furry art, or if we factor in the fandom's ratio of males to females, instead of a 50/50 split, our percentage changes to 92.25%.[102] [103] [104] [105] [106]

As of 1/29/2025, 658,116 submissions were labeled as SFW on Furaffinity,[107] [108] which isn't even half the size of the number of submissions labeled as NSFW, which is 1,384,454.[109] [110] As well as 859,450 submissions labeled as Vore on Furaffinity.[111] [112] Over 200,000 more than what is labeled as SFW.

As of 1/29/2025 there are 428,000 members in r/furry.[113] [114] r/furry is the most popular SFW furry subreddit, this is compared to the 516,000 members in r/yiff. r/yiff is the most popular NSFW furry subreddit.[115] [116]

On Disboard, a popular site meant for searching for Discord servers, the tag "furry" is labeled as an NSFW tag and related to tags such as "18+" "Hentai" "NSFW" and "ERP"[117] [118]

Steam is a massive app (or website) where you can buy games. When you search for games and type just the simple keyword "furry" you will be bombarded with constant NSFW games, and/or very suggestive content. One of the top searches filtered results suggestions on Steam with the keyword furry and Google with the search term "Furry games to play" is the videogame "Furry Feet", a foot fetish dating sim aimed at furries. Alongside this is the game "Amorous" which has come under intense scrutiny.[119] [120]

According to Google, Furaffinity is the second most popular furry website, only being surpassed by Furaffinity's NSFW counterpart "E621"; it also has a longer average visit duration, however this would change in October 2024, where Furaffinity surpassed E621 regarding raw visitor count, yet still does not have as long of view duration nor interaction time.[121] [122] [123]

Alternatively to this, E621's SFW counterpart, E962 amassed only a total of 152k visits in January 2025, relative to E621's 17 million visits, over 110 times more.[124]

According to a manually done YouTube channel review on 2/10/2025 consisting of 178 furry channels, specifically those over 5,000 subscribers, 86.9% of furry channels contain NSFW content, whereas only 13.1% of furry channels have no NSFW content.[125]

Exotic Exposure

Mental Toll of Exposure

It is a well-known and proven fact that exposure to such works for prolonged periods leads to increased feelings of anxiety, self-shamefulness, depression, an increase in tendencies to seek out progressively more extreme works, and an increase in spending to acquire such works. This increase in negative emotions could also be linked to the increased rate of suicide and depression that plague the furry community.[126] [127]

It is also known that watching NSFW only makes you view more extreme NSFW to get the same results as before. A comparison to this is what can happen in painkillers. You start with one painkiller and it does the trick, but over time, you need more painkillers to get the same effect. This can also relate to why the furry fandom has such high rates of zoophilia, as viewing anthro animal NSFW content for a prolonged experience of time will make you watch more extreme versions, such as zoophilia, to get the same small hits of dopamine you get from NSFW content.[128] [129] [130]

This spending could be linked to the purchase of fursuits or as the community calls them "Murrsuits" to fulfill sexual fetishes, these suits could cost up to 20,000 dollars each.[131-135]

"With the average experience costing hundreds or thousands of dollars, many addicts are finding themselves spending their savings, not putting aside their salaries, borrowing increasingly more drastic amounts of money from loved ones or simply getting themselves in an immeasurable amount of debt to continue feeding the demon of their addiction." - Josh.org[136]

Exposure To Minors

Multiple surveys were taken to get a rough estimate of the number of minors in the furry community. This averages out to around 31.38% of furries who joined while under 18.[137] [138] [139] [140]

This means that the results from these surveys combined with the estimated 2.1 million furries mean that roughly the amount of furries that were or still are minors is around the 650,000 range. Combined with the number of sexual interactions and exotic images in the fandom, that gives us around 550,000 to 650,000 current or former minors who have most likely been exposed to NSFW content before the age of 18.[141] [142]

For example, Toronto (The largest city in Canada) has an estimated 384,295 children ranging from 0-14.[143] This means that the number of minors likely exposed to high amounts of sexual content in the furry fandom is just under the amount of every child in Toronto two times over.[144]

Pedophilia

Pedophilia within the fandom has been a constant point of controversy, with problems regarding grooming, pedophilic behavior, and predators only becoming more common as the fandom has aged.[145]

Appeal To Youth

The fandom has been known to actively promote itself to youth, despite its well documented sexual nature and origins.[50] [51] [52] This issue has been actively fought against by the fandom, by boycotting the infamous House Bill 2586, which would've barred a large majority of sexual content being issued to minors online, negatively affecting several of the largest furry sites, including Fur Affinity and E621.[146] As well as House Bill 3084 which would bar furries from publicly participating in the fandom around or in school grounds.[147] Both would be denied.

The most common tactic used to get children or young teens into the furry fandom is that they have much brighter colors and faster movements in their content than non-furry content. Which, of course, appeals to children more than adults, while having a colorful brand isn't in a vacuum wrong, it is strikingly similar to the tactic commonly used by Tobacco and E-Vape companies to appeal to a younger audience as well.[148-153]

Alongside this, the fandom has increasingly allowed minors in the online space, and in-person, further worsening the situation. With an increase in "all ages conventions" minors have been subject to countless examples of predatory tactics and sexual manipulation. Most of these conventions still allow "Kink gear" to be worn, despite the presence of minors, something that has in the past lead to an increase in predatory tactics and in some extreme cases, sexual assault on minors.[154-160]

As previously stated, Another method of introducing minors into the fandom has been through several online sources, such as multiplayer games, the most known example being Roblox, which has seen several controversies in the past, primarily with online predators, alongside Roblox are several smaller examples based on web-blogs, videos, and other multiplayer games. This has been known to have been the cause between several successful cases of online grooming as well as the distribution of CP.[161-166]

Pedophilia

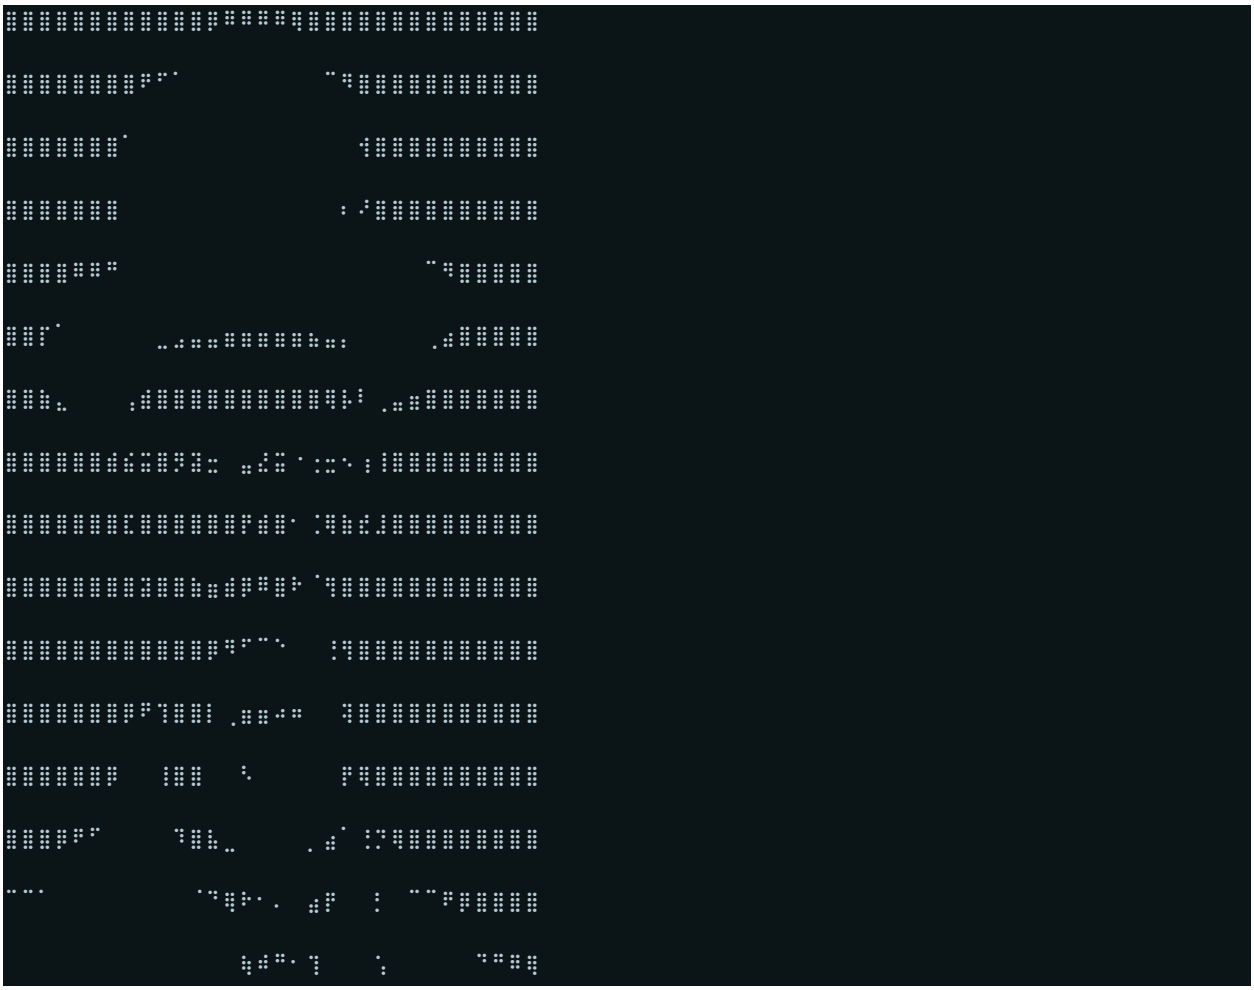
Cub

Cub is defined as a term to refer to the roleplaying of an adolescent, usually in a NSFW sense, alternatively it is a general label for artwork that contains furry minors, again usually in a NSFW setting, i.e. babyfurs, diapers and size difference. Statistically, 8% of the fandom is Sexually attracted to Cub or its alternatives,[167] [168] [169] compared to the roughly 3.5% of the general population that has shown pedophilic arousal, based on the DSM-5.[170]

One of the largest contributors to cub media within the furry fandom is E621, which has managed to evade Federal Law and Authorities several times in order to keep its over 250,000 large media bank of cub art. However on Jan 7th, 2025 E621 underwent a major change in policy, banning all Pedophilic content that involves humanlike characters, although Cub would remain largely unaffected.[171]

Noteworthy Incidents

The “Noteworthy Incidents” sections do not apply to the fandom in its entirety, instead being based on individuals and events that commonly left a mark on the fandom, as well as simply involving notable figures in archival. These are broken into five categories; Anti-Furries, Zoophilia, Exotic Exposure, Pedophilia, and Miscellaneous topics. These only encompass Sub-Documents that are fully complete at the time of this edition's publication, and do not include Link-documents.



Noteworthy Incidents: ANTI-FURRIES

Sergeant Grindstone

Sergeant Grindstone, or simply, “Grind” was an Anti-Furry responsible for much of the Hopingbutton Discord's backbone operations until he departed from the Web in January 2025.[195]

Joining the Antis

Grind joined the Anti-furry community in 2019 after having negative experiences with the Fandom, and furries. After this, he would create his YouTube channel on Nov, 16th 2020, although it wouldn’t see any video content until the summer of 2023.[196]

The Move to Discord

On August 21, 2021, Grind joined the, at the time, small Hopingbutton Discord server where he would interact with the mostly dead server, it would stay like this for over an entire year until late 2022, when Haloguy7 would start promoting the server on his various Anti-Furry meme videos, causing the immense spike in population and activity on the server. With the rapid expansion of the Discord server, Grind was promoted to Moderator in December of 2022 due to his history with the server, as well as his experience within the Anti-Furry community.[197] [198]

YouTube Spike

During mid-2023, he would begin uploading various Anti-Furry videos and memes to his YouTube Channel, the most popular of these were “How bad can I be but it’s the furry fandom” and “Debunking popular furry arguments”[199] [200] During his YouTube Growth, Grind would also grow to be known for commonly calling out major faces in the fandom, the fandom itself, as well as working towards improving the Anti-Furry Community.[201]

Burnout And Retirement

On the 10th of January 2024, due to Burnout and stress, Grind would retire from Moderator and begin the creation of the comics, there would be 7 in total created. Later in the year, on the 9th of June 2024, Grind would officially end his YouTube career and step away from the Anti-Furry Scene.[202] [203]

Final words

On the 12th of January 2025, Grind officially announced that he would be completely removing his online presence, in order to better focus on himself and his state of mind.[204]

Noteworthy Incidents: ANTI-FURRIES

Burned Furs

Burned furries emerged in the late 1990s as a counter to the oversexualization and promotion of Anti-Liberal mindests in the Furry fandom.

"Live and Let Live" is an excellent, tree-hugging philosophy, but it doesn't do much when the ones you refuse to kill are dragging you down with them. If you like animal-based stories, cartoons, or art, you're a furry. And like it or not, "Furry" means "Pervert." This didn't come out of nowhere, either."

- Squee Rat

Formation of the group

Commonly referring to themselves as the "Last Best Hope," Burned Furries (or furs) emerged in 1998 from a user known as Squee the Rat, who shared his "Modest Proposal" in the form of a call for action against the degeneracy and Toxic Positivity within the furry fandom, leading to a small following.[205] Later on, establishing a website under the name of "Burnedfur.my.com" The group had 4 founders listed on the official website, alongside a few dozen of the most influential members, yet the majority of members were not on the list. One of the articles is quoted as their start originated from the user known as "StukaFox," who was not a member of the group.[206] [207]

The primary mentality of Burned Furs came from a Post named; "This Sordid Little Business," Later referred to as a "Furry Manifesto" created by Squee the Rat. The actions of Squee the Rat, alongside a few other members, were a spark that awakened a long-existing strife between the strongly present NSFW side of the fandom and the fandom just interested in anthropomorphic animals.[208]

The "Furry Manifesto" Promoted action against the claimed perverts of the furry fandom, including but not limited to;

- Zoophiles
- Plushophists
- Furry Livestylers
- The desire to be an animal (Likely against Otherkin, although they aren't named directly)
- Belief in spirit animals and other pagan beliefs tied to animals
- Forcing veganism upon others

]Noteworthy Incidents: ANTI-FURRIES

Burned Furs

They would decide that fandom has to either be pressured to change for the better, or a new community without those problems has to be established. Burned furs still identify themselves as furries, but self describe themselves as “not insane ones,” insisting on using the term “burned fur” as a way to call themselves instead of simply “furry.”[205]

Expansion of the group

In 1999, a year later, Burned Fur member Eric Blumrich would create a “Burned Fur Webring”[209] (A web ring is a group of websites linked in a circular structure, allowing users to navigate easily between them based on a common theme or interest, eventually circling to the original website, they fell out of favor as search engines became more powerful.) The ring was the Burned Fur’s first major attempt at establishing an alternate fandom to the furry fandom, however it didn’t see as much success as they envisioned, alongside web-rings falling out of favor only two years later, the project was completely abandoned.[210]

Burned Furs would engage in self called “Flame wars” on forums against other furries, promoting ideals and addressing problems within the fandom that most ignore. Most furries however, did not see this as being criticism, or a message for improvement, but an infringement on their total freedoms of expression, leading to open hostility. Burned furs would attempt to promote physical merchandise as well, although this was seemingly unsuccessful.
[211][212][213]

Burned furs would take charge of event called “confurence” as Darrel Exline was in charge of it since confurence 11. This would lead to decline of Confurence attendance since confurence 10 where it was announced, that decision was related to controversy of confurence 8. “the general attitude toward ConFurence was that it was a "wild party" and that things getting out of control at times.”[214] As stated in the article this was not the only reason of the decline, but tensions around burned furs definitely contributed.

Burned furs had a single symbol visible on every website and graphic related to them, paw in flames.

Noteworthy Incidents: ANTI-FURRIES

Burned Furs

Criticism

Burned furs would meet with a lot of backlash, their members were seen as homophobes, fascists, and enemies of religious freedom. Main group criticizing them was “Freezing furs” [215]Group didn’t last long, disbanding the same year it was created.

Their main opponent was a group known as “peace furs”[216] group claiming to be neutral, but due to their demand being to preserve status quo and stop the conflict, group would have opposite goals and be enemies, which was true for every “neutral” group, their statements were not neutral, following them required completely removing burned furs.

Main criticism towards the group revolved around causing divisions, as even language used on their website “burned furs would be defined as furs who aren’t insane” with their pressure to not call themselves furries. Would isolate everyone who wasn’t a burned fur from fandom they wanted to build. Many furries seeked neutrality, as association with burned furs would cause isolation from mainstream fandom. And they would join groups that were opposite to the Burned furs just seeking peace.
Way of debate of burned furs would also be questioned, with known cases of threats and insults and “flame wars” on “alt.fan.furry” but being fair, those happened on both sides in similar quantities.

Burned furs has been accused of ruining the reputation of the fandom by bringing their issues out and over exaggerating them, some furries would even call them an “Anti-furry group” to the point it was included in their FAQ, they would respond that their actions are pro-furry and meant to fight for the fandom. And that this criticism is necessary.

Owner of the burned furs ring, was also an owner of a website called “party headquarters” [217] website that contained hateful messages and symbols related to marxism, with a picture of Lenin at home page. On the page he’s even referred to as “Eric “hate” Blumrich” Website was a part of “Burned furs ring” as well as “kickers of the ass ring” that was unrelated to burned furs.

One of the most known events related to burned furs is related to Scott Malcomson, who was the Arizona candidate for governor in 1998. He would get rather unfortunate coverage in the media, as the media would decide to bring up his internet activities, mentioning his post of furry pornography online.[218]

The same media would also give a description of Burned furs group “In spite of his aesthetic inclinations, Malcomson is also the member of a Furry hate group, the Burned Furs, which wishes to see the "perverts" who are members of fandom go back to the closet.”

Burned Furs 2.0

Burned furs existed from 1998 to 2001. With their inability to change the fandom, most of the members left, and their ideas lost importance. In 2004 a group known as “Burned furs 2.0” started, after receiving a lot of negative feedback they would change name to “Improved anthropomorphics” [219] they based their group on “furry manifesto” but claimed peaceful action as their way. Group would not accomplish any change, and was the last influential group inside furry fandom following ideas of burned furs. Unlike Burned furs, they wouldn’t have any influence on the fandom, and while exact year of group inactivity is hard to determine, last recorded activity of the group is in 2009 Improved Anthropomorphics

They also had their wiki page The Burned Fur Wiki / The New FAQ [220] that lists “Tom Zarycki” as their leader, it’s an old version since new one was not archived, archive of old version is incomplete too, many pages are unarchived.

Burned-Furs Today

People referring to themselves as burned furs today have a wide range of ideas, from completely opposition to furry NSFW to ideas close to historical burned furs. After two decades few people who support those ideas know the history of that group.

Burned furs believed that they are the “last chance of the fandom” therefore people following their ideas and knowing their past see no reason to stay in the fandom.
As for 2025 there is not a single organized group of furries holding ideas of the “furry manifesto”.

Noteworthy Incidents: ZOOPHILIA

Zoosadist Crime Ring

“The zoosadist crime ring” as it is commonly referred to, was a chat log on Telegram where multiple zoophiles organized events, shared explicit torture videos and pornography of various animals, as well as future plans for Zoophiles around the globe. It was exposed in late 2018 by Zoodonym, a zoophile on Twitter, with a file containing over 1.1 gigabytes of logs.

Kero the wolf

Hakan Yote, also known as Yokai of Lunari, better known as Radiance Wolf/Radiance, formerly Kero The Wolf and thedogman2, lives in Mcdonald, Pennsylvania, USA, real name, Joshua Hoffman, was a popular furry YouTuber who had over 100,000 subs before being exposed for being involved in a furry zoosadist sex ring with multiple other furries. He left all online profiles for years before returning in 2021. [221][222]

Pre-Controversy

Hakan Yote joined the furry fandom sometime in 2012 after finding out about it from his former friend SnakeThing. Hakan states that he saw a wallpaper featuring feral animals and this interested him. In the beginning, he mostly spent his time on Vine, Twitter, and Fur Affinity before creating a YouTube account on July 7, 2013. For the first few years of his time on YouTube, Haka mostly uploaded random furry-related videos and became somewhat well-known in the furry YouTube landscape. [223][224][225][226]

Sometime in 2017, a friend of KHaka by the name of Ashley Zoe Fox talked to the popular YouTuber Shane Dawson and convinced him to ask Haka to interview him about the furry fandom. Shane later uploaded the video which was called “WEIRD SIDE OF YOUTUBE: FURRIES” on July 6, 2017. Haka went from having 10,000 subscribers to 90,000 as a result of the video. This video would later be deleted to avoid backlash. [227][228][229]

He later hit 100,000 subscribers in early 2018. During this time, Kero was seen as a widely respected individual in the fandom and would continue producing content for his channel regularly until September 2018. [230]

Zoophilia/Controversy

In September 2018, Telegram chat logs circulated online[231] which appeared to show "Kero the Wolf" discussing acts of bestiality and necrophilia with animals, and videos claimed to be Kero committing such acts.

"Kero The Wolf" disputed the claims because several of the features of those in the videos do not match Kero, however, the user IDs of the Telegram chat logs appear to match those of Kero's real account, which include pictures of Kero in sexual situations with his dog, a dead fox supposedly found on the road, and that said videos were sent by him to SnakeThing. Kero variously claimed that his account was hacked, or the logs were faked, though the latter is not technically possible since the logs have been forwarded through Telegram's back-end server information. It is speculated that Kero used a proxy IP address via VPN to fake this screenshot.[232][233]

On September 28, 2018, Kothorix uploaded a YouTube video claiming that he confronted "Kero The Wolf", with whom he had previously conversed, about the veracity of the logs. In the video, Kothorix claims that Kero admitted to him that the logs were real, and that "he does have an interest in some aspects of zoophilia." He went on to say that Kero denied engaging in any actual, physical animal sex acts, which directly conflicts with the now-confirmed information in the chat logs. [234]

"Kero The Wolf" repeats this claim in a video interview with Ashley Zoe Fox [235], uploaded the same day, saying, "I have never had sex with any animals." In this second video, Kero reiterates his assertion that his Telegram account was hacked, adding that he later lost control of the report due to this and that a previous screenshot he had posted of an account he still had access to was fake, "found on the Internet." He claimed the logs were only "five percent" true.

He said that he had, in fact, joined a chat group for feral artwork, through which he befriended Nelizar/Snake-Thing, another individual implicated in the logs which were later arrested in real life, and that he ultimately stopped speaking with this individual because he was made "uncomfortable". Despite the contradictions between Kothorix's video and Ashley's, Kero retweeted a link to Kothorix's video and called it accurate. [235]

Along with other people identified in the chat logs, the evidence against "Kero The Wolf" was submitted to the authorities. In a tweet thread posted on November 8, 2018, Kero revealed he was under police investigation, stating that he is taking the situation seriously and apologizing for causing the furry fandom "trouble" [236]

On January 30, 2019, "Kero The Wolf" put out a tweet [237] after a two-month absence in which he stated that he was leaving the fandom, citing "toxic mindsets" and "witch hunts" against members of the community.

Around June 2019, Haka sold his third fursuit to a fan of his by the name of Diamond Dwolf, who said they would wear it at Anthrocon 2019. It is unknown if they went through with their decision or not. The fate of his other two fursuits is currently unknown although it's likely Kero still possesses them. During Anthrocon 2019, it was reported that Haka was in attendance, leading to speculation that the sale of his fursuit was a ruse so that he could walk around in it. At that same convention, it was discovered that someone was going around wearing Haka's second fursuit. On July 20, 2019, LordOcelet, a non-furry who is friends with Kero in real life uploaded a video that confirmed that it was him in Kero's fursuit. According to Ashley Zoe Fox who also attended the con, it was done as a "social experiment" to see if furries there would care or not. [238][239][240]

Sometime around late 2018 and early 2019, the Pennsylvania State Police seized all of Kero's electronic devices after getting a warrant. About 30 devices were taken. Because of this, Kero couldn't make any videos until 2021. [241]

In 2020 Archivists discovered an account on the now-dead Beast Forms website, a website dedicated to zoophilia and zoophilic activities, with an account by the name of “thedogman2”. This account is widely believed to be Kero’s first account after over half a dozen connections between the account and Kero were connected. A post from the account in 2017 stated that he had “9 Years of experience” which would conclude that Kero had been practicing zoophilia since he was 13, long before he ever met Snakething. [242]

Aftermath

On March 12, 2021, after nearly two years of dormancy, Haka uploaded a video to his YouTube channel, titled "My Side"[243] in which he explains all that happened within the past few years, trying to defend himself and denounce the accusations brought upon him. An example of this was when he brought up his potentially being arrested, in which he states that — while police did indeed show up to his house, even up to "several times a week" — they ultimately did not find him guilty on any counts, even after it being handled by, quote:

"Real detectives with degrees in forensics, and after two years of digging".

- Hakan Yote

He continues to upload various content to his channel, and despite his poor reputation, he has managed to retain over 87,500 subscribers as of 2/14/24, [244] although this has been on a steady decline. Between August and September Kero lost over 10,000 subscribers.[245]

He also is known for abusing copyright claims [246] against other creators for attempting to dig up his past, using his image in a negative light, or simply against those he does not like.

Resurfacing

In February 2024, Kero began once again re-attending and attempting to resurface in multiple furry conventions under the pretense of “Hakan Yote” although this was quickly picked up by multiple individuals. [247]

SnakeThing

Snakething[254] or also known as Levi Dane Simmons, was the Ringleader of the “Zoosadist Ring " in Oregon and an obsessive collector of extreme porn, who gathered members on Telegram to feed his urges. Sentenced to 25 years of prison without parole and 25 years of probation. Simmons was convicted of 26 charges of encouraging child sexual abuse (a felony), 10 of which he was convicted guilty. He was also convinced with 5 charges of encouraging sexual assault of animals (a misdemeanor), though these claims were most likely true, they were all dismissed. With these charges, he also received Sex Offender Registration. Sentenced to 25 years of prison without parole, as well as 25 years of probation. He is currently located at the Snake River Correctional Institution where he is serving his sentence until November 27th of 2044. His Date Of Birth is 12/20/1994.[255]

According to kiwifarms, he once lived with his parents in 885 Lombard St North Bend, OR 97459 with his mother, Sheri Simmons, after her husband, Robert Simmons filed for divorce. His current location is unknown. His mother is fully aware of Levi’s predatory behavior, yet she failed at stopping him herself because she was really busy. [256][257][258]

Snakething conducted a plan along with Tane and a couple of other people on how they were going to drug and rape Nacho Doggo. Snakething and Sangie conducted a plan on how they were going to abuse Snakething’s nine-year-old cousin sexually, Snakething has also admitted to sexually abusing a little boy. At the same time, he slept, which is why he is so comfortable talking about this with Sangie. Snakething and Sangie have also discussed grooming other young boys and distributing CP to one another.[259][260][261][262]

History

Snakething has accounts dating back to 2012 On Furaffinity, a popular site for pornographic art, on this site he has had homosexual relations with a furry/zoophile named Sangie Nativus, also known as James Hoyt, who was also exposed along with Snakething in zoophilia leaks. [254][263]

SnakeThing had a lot of accounts on various social media platforms, like twitter, furaffinity and steam. He followed another zoophile account, ZetaOmega on twitter under the username Nelizer_Neli. He had a fursona called Nelizar in his furaffinity account and was in the 2 groups “Herpy” and “Happy To Be A Furry” on Steam. [264]

In the leaked chat logs, Levi could be seen cheering on various acts of cruelty to animals, including brutal murder, and bragging about raping animals himself. He even claims to have raped a 12 week old puppy. He killed the small animals by various methods, including stomping, stabbing or throwing. [265]

Criminal Charges

Levi has been arrested and charged with sexual assault of an animal, animal abuse, and animal neglect. [266]

Levi has been released from prison as the DA and police of Coos County are working on a complete list of charges. [267][268]

On December 4th 2019, Levi was charged with 7 counts of Encouraging child sexual abuse in the first degree, 19 counts of Encouraging child sexual abuse in the second degree, and 5 counts of Encouraging sexual assault of an animal. If convicted of all of these and given the maximum penalty for each charge, Levi will almost certainly die in prison.
Case #19CR78637 (State of of Oregon) [269][270]

On 3/9/2020, Levi pled guilty to 6 charges of Encouraging Child Sexual Abuse in the First Degree, and 4 charges of Encouraging Child Sexual Abuse in the second degree. His sentence is 300 straight months in prison. [271][272][273]

Eliteknight

Eliteknight — Born April 11th, 1997, Florida resident and play partner of Snakething, who abused his dog for zoosadist porn. He posted confirmation for the leaks. [290][291]

Eliteknight, or Christian Nicholas claimed that Snakething was the cause of his actions, which is that he filmed himself raping his dog to befriend Snakething. On February 11, 2019, his dogs were taken away, and was arrested and charged with aggravated animal cruelty, and then charged with prohibition of certain acts in connection with obscene materials, although he was later released on bail. [293][294]

Zoophilia/Pedophilia

Eliteknight goes by the name CoreyWolfTWC on Twitter, he once ran a group formerly called Dongsmiths on Telegram where he was involved in 3D modeling and 3D printing adult fantasy sex toys. When the zoosadist leaks from September were leaked he deleted his Telegram account, leaving the group without an owner.

Stewart once tried to groom a minor in 2012 but was not very successful. [295]

On February 11, 2019, Eliteknight was arrested by Pinellas County Sheriff's Office; Investigative Operations Bureau and Crimes Against Children Unit and was charged for performing zoophilic actions on his Siberian Husky.

According to detectives, the images show the man dressed in a black and white Husky dog costume and that the dog, Ember, in the video was clearly in distress.
He was charged with one count of Aggravated Animal Cruelty and ten counts of Prohibition of Certain Acts in Connection with Obscene Materials and was soon be transferred to Pinellas County Jail. [296][297]

Pinellas County Sheriff's investigators say that in the video, Nichols is dressed in a black and white Husky furry dog costume and, "…using his penis and multiple penis-shaped sex toys (had) inappropriate sexual contact with a Siberian Husky dog."

A tipster named Conor Goodwolf, who has reported on Nichol. Goodwolf also provided a lot of extremely graphic images from Nichols' online presence indicating that Nichols had a bizarre online persona that featured him as a Wolf & Creator of Sex 'Toys'. [298]

Goodwolf explained that when Nichols was in his early teens, he "developed a passion for wolves which grew into an online persona called CoreyTWC" and joined a group of like-minded people who actually believe they are wolves. In numerous posts, Nichols states that he has mental health issues, namely extreme social anxiety but that being on the platform Telegram helped him. He was in therapy.

Nichols even criticized the Furry Fandom for not being more supportive of his "Fetish-Driven" life. [299]

Connor Goodwolf, who reported Nichol to authorities, may not be a hero either, supposedly having allegations against him of grooming a 15-year-old, and he is known for being banned from Anthrocon as well as some online activities. [300]

Glowfox

Glowfox, real name is Philipp Arthur Valderrama Negreiros, Philipp worked as a Peruvian firefighter, installing LEDs in bars and clubs, and had an interest in LEGO. He was once a member of the LUG Lego Club Expo in the San Miguel district of Lima[301], Peru. He also has a boyfriend, Felipe Rinehart. Philipp's Tumblr is called "Glowfox's Naughty Den". [302][303][304][305][306]

Pedophilia/Zoophilia

Inside the Zoosadism 2018 leaks there are many evidences and several pictures of Philipp playing with animals genitals and Felipe performing sexual acts to his own dogs.[307] Philipp also has a scat fetish and usually uses a vacuum to prolapse himself or his partner. [308]

In the leaked chat logs, Philipp also admitted to SnakeThing that he had been molesting multiple dogs and animals at a young age. [309]

Philipp might have been charged with Drug-Facilitated, Sexual Assault Of a Minor Child, Pedophilia, Zoophilia, and (Potential) sex trafficking, but he has resurfaced lately with a still active Furaffinity account and multiple accounts on streaming platforms. He has never been banned from Furaffinity. [310][311]

Philipp also had a porn profile with his boyfriend Felipe/NSFW: [312][313]

Philipp also admitted to SnakeThing that he molested a minor, they were 11 years old and he was 18 years old at that time. [314]

Tane

Tane, whose real name is Nickolas A Spahn, born January 15, 1996, is one of the furry zoosadists in the 2018 leaks, a sexual deviant, pedophile, rapist, and blackmail enthusiast.

Tane Had a special porn trading deal with Snakething. Partner to an SF Bay Area furry, who confirmed Tane was in the ring. Tane conducted a plan along with Snakething and a couple of other people on how they were going to drug and rape Nacho Doggo. He once worked for defense contractors and mentored children from 2015-2016. He might have molested a lot of kids, but for now, we only know at least two.

One of the fursuits he wore for furry conventions

Current:

Brief history of Nickolas: "Buddies with SnakeThing. Apparently f#cked a 16-year-old boy and recorded/shared it. Not into full-blown torture but sexual torture is another matter. Had s#x with a 14 years old minor (referred to sexual engagement with him as "real-life cub") named "Devin" and filmed it on a go-pro, sending it to SnakeThing to circulate it. Also went to the Nebraska bestiality farm where he claimed to have met an (unnamed) associate from PetLust and Leon Fox, admin of U18Chan (not to be confused with fursuiter Leon_The_Fox in Europe). Was friends with Cupid and intended on making a fursuit sex video with him at Midwest FurFest. Due to his work in cybersecurity he mostly kept his actual posts and content in Telegram's private chat function. Noted as being interested in drugging and raping people as well as animals. Co-worker to Xyro/Zentra at Texas Furry Fiesta and BLCF as A/V/Lighting staff. Had a Kilcodo costume fursuit."

"Devin" - Minor Groomed by Tane and SnakeThing - Referred to as a "real-life cub" by Tane, both Tane and SnakeThing intended to meet him in order to create child porn content to share and distribute. It was later confirmed that he had sex with Tane on two separate occasions, who filmed the first encounter in a car on a go-pro hidden in his fursuit head and shared the video with SnakeThing. Devin was also sent to Sangie to exchange illicit files, and was actively being groomed to trade zoophile content and to run his own group.

There was a Twitter thread about Nickolas using alt accounts and being protected by zoophiles who run conventions.
https://threadreaderapp.com/thread/1426031307356663809.html

There was also another Twitter thread about Nickolas discussing about drugging and raping a minor with Levi/SnakeThing. Therefore, both he and SnakeThing decided to commit the exact crimes as planned. In 2017 Nickolas groomed a minor named Devin into sexual interactions. He recorded the video and distributed it to their zoo-pedo network. He also took nude photos of Devin wearing his fursuit head.
https://threadreaderapp.com/thread/1350428939257339906.html
https://docs.google.com/document/d/1USI1o-mM3_Udw_kI79yjD5UbHnCVCmt2dKxbwCOMF-w/edit

Nickolas and SnakeThing groomed Devin to separate him from his family and help them distribute illicit media, and it surely helped keep him quiet. They also groomed Devin to trade him to convicted sex offender James Hoyt / Sangie. Nickolas benefited from lying that Devin was 18 and they had a relationship.

Currently, the group has acknowledged the allegations towards their friend, Nickolas, however, they are trying to protect him, they had Tane's friend Kay replace him as treasurer, but Tane is still there and ran a Ham exam at the hackerspace last week, suppressing info about this. Relations To Furry-Cons Nickolas continues to be a con staff even in 2023.

This badge says "Technical Production Staff" for Texas Furry Fiesta 2023.

Some members of DEFCon furs acted to cast Nickolas Spahn out. He was still going to the event and in their groups. Nickolas also associated with Kay Fox, admin of DEFcon on Telegram(https://t.me/defconfurs), they did business together before Nickolas was “kicked out”, as stated in the article posted by DogPatchPress

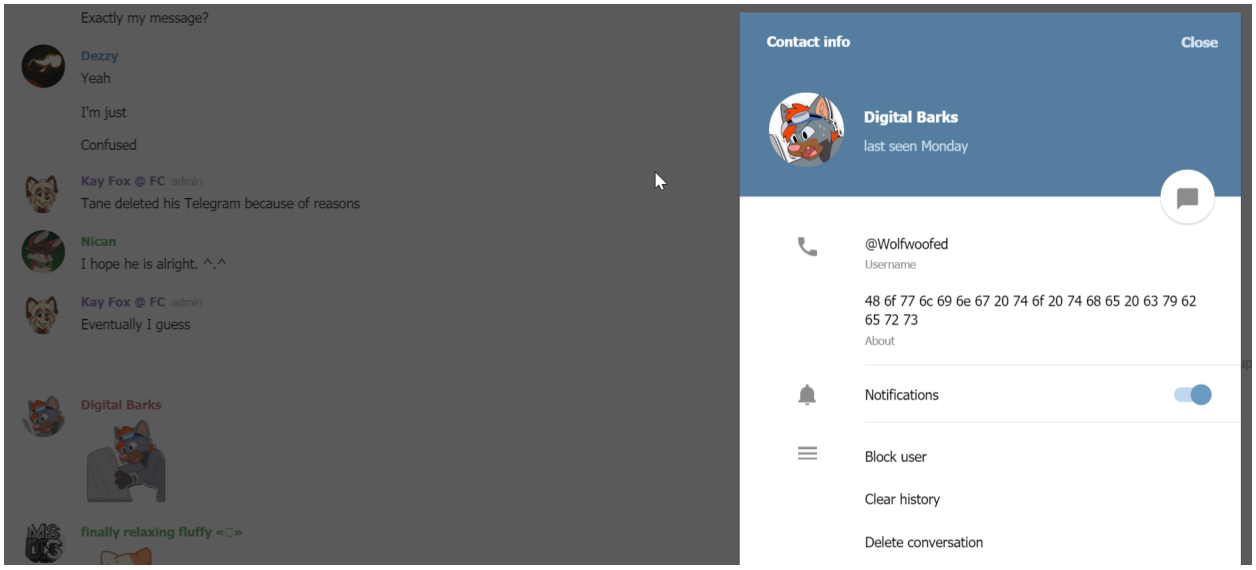
After the 2018 leaks, Nickolas deleted their previous Telegram account, and rejoined the group under a new name



Note: Kay also becomes one of the members of Pawprint Prototyping.

Tane also had a furry tech work with a lot of cons, including Anthrocon, BFLC, and many more. He was crew for Furcast with Paradox Wolf/ Ctcwired/ Caleb Thomas Carges. (Another Zoophile). Furcast was shut down after hundreds of episodes. Crew relations broke down over Paradox's decade of zoophile relations. They also promoted Zoophilia to their audiences.
https://furcast.fm/?s=zoophilia https://archive.md/E3elz
https://archive.vn/BObq6

Both Paradox and Tane were staffed in the Anthrocon 2017 event
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fbfftyHK9h8
Tane, as well as other zoophiles, infiltrated cons by paying in peaceable acceptance from cohorts who knew what he was years ago, especially Kelcema Audio, founder of West Coast furry fandom, a keystone in supporting furry conventions.

List of furry cons supported Kelcema Audio that Tane, and possibly other zoophiles participated in:

- FURther Confusion
- Texas Furry Fiesta
- Furlandia BLFC
- AquatiFur
- Paw Con
- Anthro NW

Relations To Other Zoophiles

They knew in 2018. It's in a long story with Stabe and Mark working cons with Tane. They shared the same landlord, Nicholas "Laveur" Bourey, a zoophile and chair of Paw Con in California. The con staffed them with convicted pedophile Growly, aka Daniel Mizuho Llamas, and welcomed Sangie from the ring.

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1bc3qVz3S7gNsWhclQC5CqstPaUMYWNI-hWxUwd7jl24/edit

Tane is also maintaining places to go that are run by zoophiles or sympathizers. One of these is “Slightly Furry”, a brewing company run by furries in the Seattle area, where many 2018 zoosadists and their friends are embedded in the furry scene. “Slightly Furry” is run by 3 partners. One of them, Kompy, is a zoo. It's quiet but he openly made porn with Cenny that was recorded by Kompy's husband with a phone bearing a "zoo pride" sticker.

Sephius

Sephius Rivendare, real name is Patrick Pauger, used to be an Austrian photographer, he is a zoosadist, scat fetishist, and a necrophile. He abused his own 2 dogs, tortured young animals, especially puppies and had sexual interactions with dead animals' corpses, like deer, and was thought to be the person in a video of sex with a dead deer originally attributed to Kero. Sephius has a Fanclub.

Sephius has posted about how an animal health professional (probably a veterinarian) has investigated his dog for rape or other psychological harms due to the allegations about the zoosadists leaks, and how police searched his computer, but found nothing. Sephius claims that chats can be easily faked and that none of that was him, claiming he did nothing (Furaffinity account has been deleted)

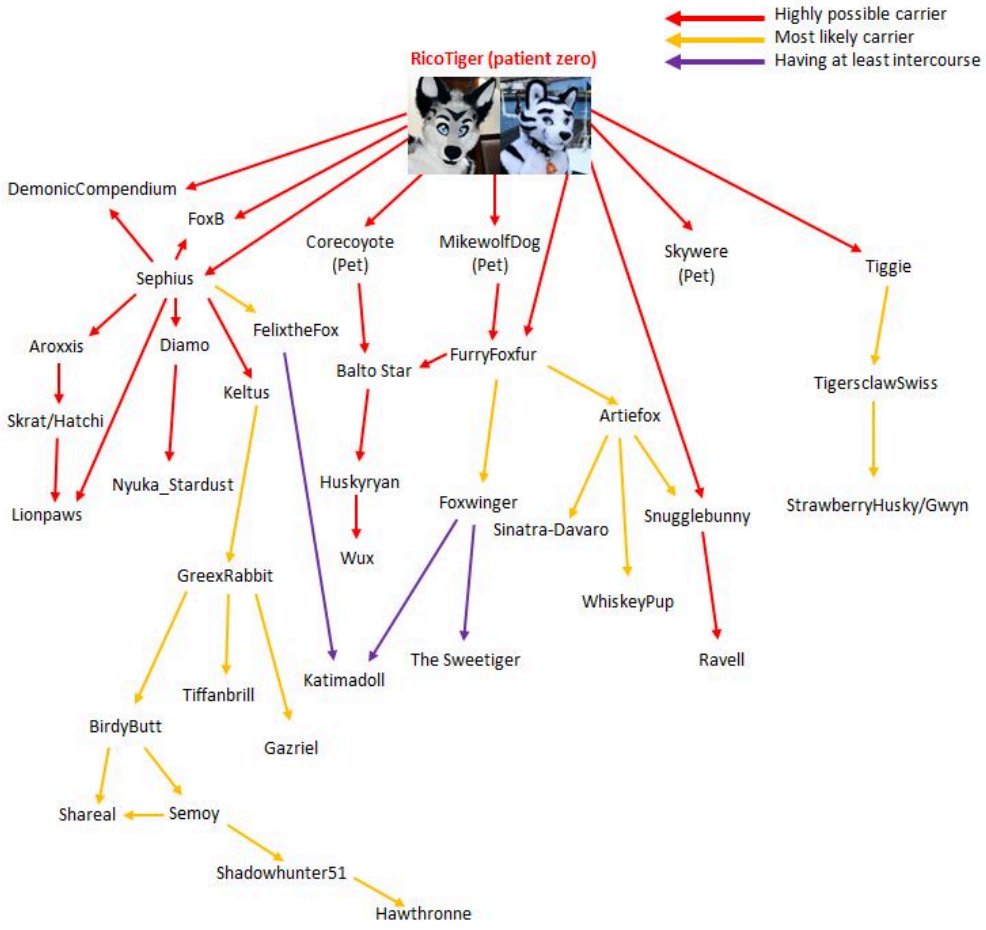
Sephius also appears in the HIV-Furs infection chain, located to the left-middle, and is one of the most contributing.

HIV-Furs™ - Chain of infection

There is one confirmed HIV carrier in the UK fandom attending Confuzzled and Eurofurence every year, having unprotected sex and does not tell people that he is a health risk. This chart is meant as be aware chart for those who intend to play with that individual. Center of the chart is confirmed carrier RicoTiger, Adam Wills.
Keep in mind if you sleep with someone you sleep with all partners the person had before, too. Including all STDs.



Sephius has been to many furry conventions in Austria/Germany, including EF, Confuzzles, and events by Bayern-Furs. Sephius is still active in the furry community in Austria/Germany.

Equinas

Named as being "exceptionally fucked up" by SnakeThing, Equinas, or Equus911, real name Thomas Larue Jacobs has been involved with Tim Win and prominent Calzoo ring activity going back to the 1990s, serving as one of its hosts, showing great interest in dolphins, puppies, and most disturbingly, roadkill/gutted animals.
https://archive.is/UrzN7

He was heavily implicated in the infamous 2018 zoosadism leaks, and even in the Connyland Aquarium dolphin abuse ring, or "Dolph Ring" for short. Although he hasn't seen much consequence for his involvement with these.
https://walfteam.livejournal.com/4725.html

https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-2060697/Noisy-day-rave-Swiss-marine-park-blamed-death-dolphin.html

Thomas was also friends with Drakkor and Orcakeiko, two other zoophiles who also worked in the dolphin ring, and they also had connections with many other zoophiles as well. Frank Sanchez, or Drakkor, is a zoophile who has sexual perversion with dolphins, he used to work at Connyland as a Swiss Dolphin Trainer. Drakkor recorded himself performing oral sex on some of the dolphins, and made other content such as "Dolphin vore". Another person to look out for is, "Orcakeiko" or Terry Hardie, he left the company around the time Drakkor was fired, and is friends with many zoophiles.
https://archive.is/R48c3
https://archive.ph/fBlON#

Zoophilia/Necrophilia

Thomas was once inside the Beasty Beast group chat and was constantly expressing his ideas about his twisted sexual desires toward animals, like goats and sheep to many people, especially with Tim Win. He went by the name Equi_K9 in the group chat, commonly interacting with Blonde Dog.

Thomas also told people about his perverted desires by admitting that he enjoyed torturing animals, he also wanted to kill stray dogs because they are "unwanted", torture disobedient animals and supported SnakeThing on necrophilia. His targets aren't just stopping at young animals like puppies, but also cats, geese, sheep, goats, dolphins, horses, and deer.

Tim Win/Matepups

Tim Amos, also known as Matepups, is a zoo sadist known for having associated with zoophilia in various forms, such as promoting online guides on how to sexually assault dogs and cook them, attending multiple zoophilia parties, and most notably, being outed during the zoosadist ring leaks in 2018, where he commonly helped film videos for Snakething, Equinas, and Woof. Although this was the only ring where he was actively accepted, being deemed by other zoophiles as “Too Extreme.”

Dog Dude, Rainstirs, Dawglover, Dawgslot, Matepups, Muddling, Foxkiter, and Winlocktim, are some of the several online aliases he used. His Heinous Acts, rivaling Woof, go back basically as far as the birth of the internet, in the early 90s to be specific. He would partake in sharing info on how to sexually assault female dogs, (using the screen name, “Dog Dude”) He was not always online though, as he would attend zoophile parties, and be hunted for the same acts 30 years later
(Source Needed)

Eventually, he married one of his dogs, Mandy, a female Golden Retriever, in 1998. He developed an obsession with this dog, eventually leading him to succumb to his zoosadist fetish. Leading to the torture and death of the animal, all while it was fully conscious, eventually killing them. After he killed his dog, he butchered, cooked, and ate them, as shown in a telegram chat between him and SnakeThing, something that would become common practice in the future.

Going by the alias, Rainstirs, he started to offer his editing skills to other zoo sadists in the Pacific Northwest where he lived at the time. In 2014, Tim joined Reddit, known as Matepups, and created a subreddit, r/InnocentVictimReports appearing to be a true crime sub, focusing mainly on news stories on children, and occasionally animals. He began advertising his subreddit, in which people found out about his history, and called him out on it, saying stuff like, “Go back to raping animals and fantasizing on raping kids (check user history)” However, his subreddit is his collection, which he uses for pornography. His sadism is not just toward animals, but for anything too young that can’t fend for themselves.

(Source Needed)

Leaving his “Matepups” account, he returned to an account called, Dawgslot, posting in r/InnocentVictimReports, with the titles becoming more ghoulish and racist, leading to r/sexy_dead_dogs, his necro-beastiality subreddit. Thankfully, it was only noticed by a handful of nasty onlookers, but one appeared to show interest, SnakeThing which is how they met. Snake and Tim would go on to make numerous plans on how they would practice zoosadism on animals.

As time passed, Snake’s sharing of the content eventually got out to zoodonym, which is the person who did the zoosadist leaks in 2018, and began hunting Snake and Tim, ultimately succeeding, but Tim was never charged. The council had assembled to decide Tim’s fate, let him off with a stern warning, and barred him from ever owning a dog again.

Tim was also a member of the Sin Bin telegram group chat, a zoosadism NSFL chat group that allowed minors. For the most part, Tim spectates the goings-on of Sin Bin. He is far less involved here than he was in “Beasty Beast Beasts” and he only shared a few photos none of which seem to have been self-produced. Of course, he still supports animal torture in the group, Tim reveals he maintains a 'kit' which contains condoms and presumably his scalpel, the various rape drugs he repeatedly purchased from Kintari.

Because Tim is hidden under various aliases including u/matepups, u/dawgslot, u/UpForAnythang985, and possibly many more that are simply unknown, he has managed to maintain a subreddit dedicated to collecting various news stories about the rape of babies and small children as well as animals and the occasional teenager, although as of December 2024, this subreddit has been banned. He also had an account u/WinlockTim on Reddit and commented on multiple posts about dead kids and gore as well as his own Imgur account containing violent materials. In one of the posts made by himself, Tim said that his first experience molesting an animal was apparently at the age of 16.

In the chat logs leaked from the zoophile telegram group chat “Beasty Beast Beasts”. Tim repeatedly declared that his ideal victims are living 8-12-month-old puppies. He loved drugging dogs and puppies and claimed: “Sedatives help for the desired outcome”.

Tekkita/Mr. Bitchtits

Tekkita/Mr. Bitchtits, lectronicKnot, Ak1taP0wer, real name Levi Dallas Boyd, born March 10th, 1994, was a primary Zoosadist contact of Snakething, associated with Cupid and source for porn of him, most likely was a possible partner or roommate of Cupid.

Note: The alias "Mr. Bitchtits" is now believed to possibly be a shared account between Saito Fox/coywolf and Tekkita.

In the leaked chat logs, the account Mr. Bitchtits has been constantly mentioning raccoons, deers, and drugging dogs, SnakeThing mentioned that Tekkita was living in Seattle and referred to him as a fursuit maker. Tekkita also seems to have been in a relationship with "Cupid" around June 2017, and a third member named "darkfox". Additionally, Tekkita was a former admin of ZooFurries Society/Zeta Corner Telegram, which was an expansive zoophile group.
https://kiwifarms.net/threads/zoosadism-megathread.47973/post-3787983

There's also mention of a member called "SireWoof", who is a friend of Tekkita and added to the group, although his significance before this is unknown, and leads on him haven't shown any results.
https://archive.is/UQbN2

According to the previous archive of an account named Tekkita on Furaffinity in 2015, he said in his description that he was a 3D modeler and he was living in rural Pennsylvania, although this has been proven to be outdated.

There is a high chance that both accounts mentioned in the archive and the current one are the same because of the similar patterns on his previous fursuit and his current fursona. Secondly, an account on Furaffinity posted a photo about Tekkita with Akari, based on the IDs they were wearing and the accounts tagged under the post, we can assume that those accounts are the same.

Techno Husky

Techno Husky, SF Bay Area zoo-sadist who Snakething tries to convince to abuse the family chihuahua, text indicates sharing child porn.
https://dogpatch.press/2019/09/16/crime-ring-zoosadist/

History

Little is known about Techno Husky's true identity. According to the leaks and kiwifarms, Techno Husky may live in San Jose, California. Techno Husky used to share stuff to SnakeThing on 8chan and in his own chats, he was willing to trade money and sexual favors in exchange for content.

His first zoophilia experience was when he was 13. He was also part of the Animal Gore group chat and was an admin there.
https://archive.is/mJ87a
https://archive.is/IWLp5

Surprisingly, in the Animal Gore group chat, a majority of the members there were furries, according to the host, aka “Gore”, there were 60% furries and 40% others. Techno Husky can also be found.
https://archive.is/QoIQ7
Group rule: “No beastiality”; “No CP”; “No doxxing”.

In the leaked chat logs, some information about Techno Husky can be found there.

- Birthdate: 16th of January.
- Owns a chihuahua as of 2017.
- Had sex with a dog at 13.
- Also a user on Zoocore, very enthusiastic about zoosadism.

Sangie

Sangie, real-life name; James Christopher Hoyt, date of birth: 10/7/1981, he is the creator of InkedFur, an NSFW printing company and art hosting site for furries. He does musical DJ work under the name "DJ Nativus", previously going by "DJ Toboe". He likes to describe himself as a Leftist anti-fascist and speaking out against pedophilia in the fandom, even though he helped groom the 9-year-old nephew of Snakething for molesting.

Sangie is also a convicted pedophile for having a history of preying on minors. He successfully dodged the allegations a few times despite there being mugshots of his actual face. However, he was soon exposed again for having a relationship with SnakeThing and by the undeniable evidence from the Zoosadism leaks. https://archive.fo/uydlS

Sangie had supported a lot of cub artists, especially on his website, InkedFur. Over 150 artists worked with his company. He admitted that he liked cub porn and even approved of Cub Porn Simba Daki, he liked how Simba's penis looks like a “real child’s”. He also wanted to open a cub porn venting site but was unable to due to obvious reasons.

Sangie even attempted to manipulate the truth on wikiFurs by changing the entire article to a generous amount of denial. In his now deleted FurAffinity journal indicating the arrests concerned interacting with an underage individual online Later, Sangie posted that his criminal record expunged in 2018 due to completing probation. He was eventually charged with a misdemeanor and was incarcerated for 8 months.
https://archive.ph/sekBg
https://archive.ph/sekBg
https://archive.fo/i901a

As of April 22, 2019, James' criminal record has been expunged as he was deemed no longer a danger to society. James recently found himself back in the spotlight as conversations between him and his longtime friend SnakeThing. Unlike many others in the leaks, James did not partake in the abuse of animals. Instead, he and Levi traded porn of 14-year-old boys, Devin and discussed grooming Levi's nephews for James to "seduce"

James once “tried” to keep SnakeThing/Levi in line and to stop him from molesting minors; however, he failed and even got jealous of Levi engaging with minors and said that the only thing stopping him from going after minors younger than 17 was fear of more jail time.

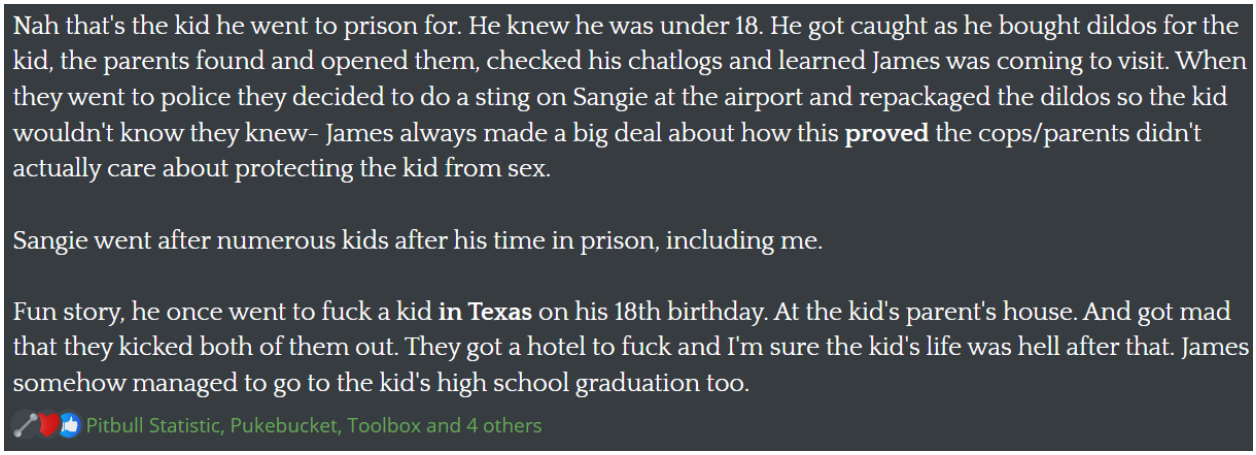
One of Sangie's victims experiences with him



Nah that's the kid he went to prison for. He knew he was under 18. He got caught as he bought dildos for the kid, the parents found and opened them, checked his chatlogs and learned James was coming to visit. When they went to police they decided to do a sting on Sangie at the airport and repackaged the dildos so the kid wouldn't know they knew- James always made a big deal about how this proved the cops/parents didn't actually care about protecting the kid from sex.
Sangie went after numerous kids after his time in prison, including me.
Fun story, he once went to fuck a kid in Texas on his 18th birthday. At the kid's parent's house. And got mad that they kicked both of them out. They got a hotel to fuck and I'm sure the kid's life was hell after that. James somehow managed to go to the kid's high school graduation too.

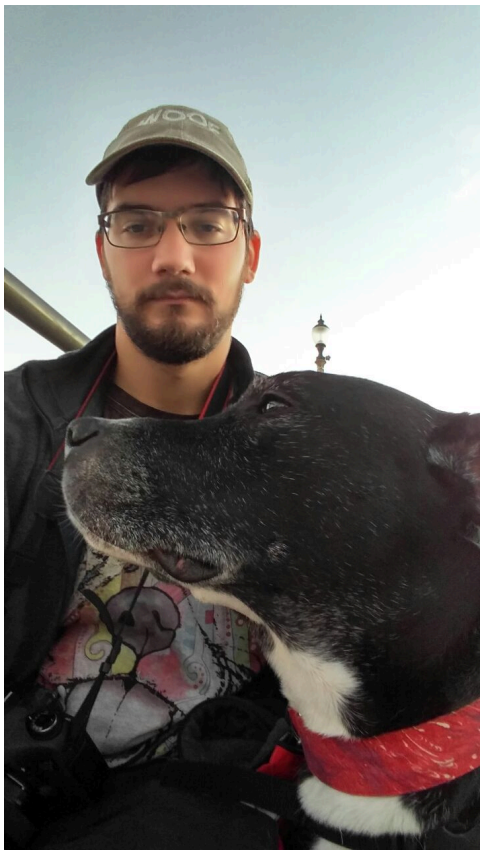
Blonde Dog/Golden Retriever

Joshua Balon, or Blonde Dog/Golden Retriever/Dogs, born in 1988, is an alcoholic zoosadist who raped and tortured many animals. Joshua met SnakeThing through Tim Win, they usually exchange nudes, information, beastiality materials, and updates on their lives.
https://archive.is/498n6



According to the leaks, Josh had a camera roll of beastiality and a hard drive with those contents. He once worked at a dog kennel and said the “most” he could do was groping them, he also raped his own dog and many other people’s pets, most likely those who were unlucky enough to choose that particular kennel.
https://archive.is/YECDV
https://archive.is/50q67

He has a scat fetish and has always dreamed about sexually assaulting other people. Josh has two other Telegram accounts where he shared animal gore, and torture with Snakething, they contain the same content as his main.

Ember

Dylan "Emberwolf" Pleskac, born in 1998, is one of the many identities implicated in the Zoosadism leaks. Dylan is a frequent attendee of furry conventions in the Midwest, including MFF, Denfur, FWA, BLFC, and Anthrocon.
http://archive.is/E4pDk
https://archive.li/4oj25

In the leaks, a chat log between SnakeThing and Emberwolf appears in the Zoosadism leaks. Ember discusses his pet-sedating techniques and plans a meeting in a motel to drug a dog with acepromazine or weed edibles.
https://archive.is/SC8We
https://archive.is/bHMc4

Emberwolf has shared a lot of images from cub pornography and zoophilia to diapers and watersports in the chat logs, and probably even more via Telegram's Secret Chat feature, more commonly referred to as DMs. There are also pictures of Dylan giving himself an anal prolapse.
https://archive.is/spqLy
https://archive.is/814qm

Upon finding out he was outed, Emberwolf promptly deleted most of his accounts. Additionally, both Chadla and Emberwolf were involved in the Floor 21 incident in BLFC 2017.
https://docs.google.com/document/d/1-8tswWBnjXoaxEY7v-Aizzcs8G5hutF98UIKU4-khUw/edit
https://archive.is/tCgxc

"The doorman recounts how two attendees, Chad and Ember, returned to the party under the influence of drugs, wearing only diapers. Chad became aggressive and had to be subdued with the help of others before security and medical personnel arrived. Ember was found in a similar state and was also restrained and taken to the hospital. Chad has since apologized for his actions, but Ember has not."
https://archive.is/4oj25

After that incident, many furries who were there claimed that Ember was a sociopath and he even continued the party after he returned to the hospital.

He also had an unofficial “husband”, namely Chadbla on Twitter, both he and Chadbla attended Denfur 2018. From Chadbla, we know that Emberwolf is a fursuiter and many of his accounts.

Kintari

Kintari, or Joshua Lockett, had a career as a veterinarian technician. He was previously employed at Fishtown Animal Hospital, where he used to provide drugs for dogs and animals to half of the zoosadism community.
http://furries.s3-website-us-east-1.amazonaws.com/post/kintari_joshua_lockett/

Career and job license

According to the post from Fishtown Animal Hospital, Joshua had 2 dogs, Australis a husky, and Lance, a Border Collie. He was educated at BCIT in Westampton, NJ, pursuing his Ecology, Evolution, and Natural Resources degree.
https://archive.md/Towct
https://www.facebook.com/FishtownAnimalHospital/posts/this-weeks-staff-spotlight-joshua-lockett-veterinary-technicianjoshua-lockett-in/1640282402873039/

Picture of his 2 dogs:

https://archive.md/lFfJk

You can find many flaws in the Facebook post from Fishtown Animal Hospital. They didn't give any credentials to Kintari's vet tech job. Each state determines what terminology is and isn't allowed to be used by uncredentialed veterinary staff, and what credentials (RVT, LVT, or CVT) are given to those who get their degree. In New Jersey, it doesn't require you to become certified in order to practice as a technician.
https://njvma.org/page/Becoming_a_VeterinaryTechnician
https://ptcbtestprep.com/state-requirements/pharmacy-tech-license-new-jersey/

Secondly, Joshua obtained his education at Burlington County Institute of Technology in Westampton. A quick search of BCIT's website shows that they do not, in fact, offer a CVT program. What they do have is a Veterinary Assistant program, except there isn't a national exam or any kind of proper licensing procedure.
https://archive.md/lFUvV

So in short, Kintari never got his license because there was never a license to lose in the first place. Kintari could be fired from his current job, but without any kind of official documentation tied to a license, he could easily get a job in the field again.

Zoophilia

In the chat logs between SnakeThing and Tane, they revealed that Kintari was interested in torturing animals and he usually stole drugs from his veterinary job and sold them to other zoosadists to assist with zoosadism.
https://archive.is/J3EWh
https://archive.is/tvyyO

Kintari also let another zoophile, Sheppypaws, sexually assault his dog, as well as having a short relationship with Narmin Shahin and Elizabeth Crane, or Lonewolf. He had a history of manipulating any girl he was dating who wasn't into zoosadism to try it, like Arle. Narmin Shahin was dumped by her then-partner “CordialPrince,” when Cordial found out about her past.

https://archive.is/MCF8h

https://archive.is/uVxXr
https://web.archive.org/web/20190122073543/https://imgur.com/a/7Wm1sXm
https://archive.is/1nDKd

Kintari usually abused Lonewolf’s 12-year-old dog and the couple was so well known that Lonewolf had been banned from multiple NJ Wolfdog groups due to her association with Kintari. The original call out of Kintari was back in 2015 from Arle. Detailed documentary about Kintari is at the link at the top of this doc.

Elizabeth Crane was employed at many kennels, might have lived in the MA area and was born on 2/2/1989. She has been struggling financially with debt for a long time which might be due to her inconsistent work ethic.

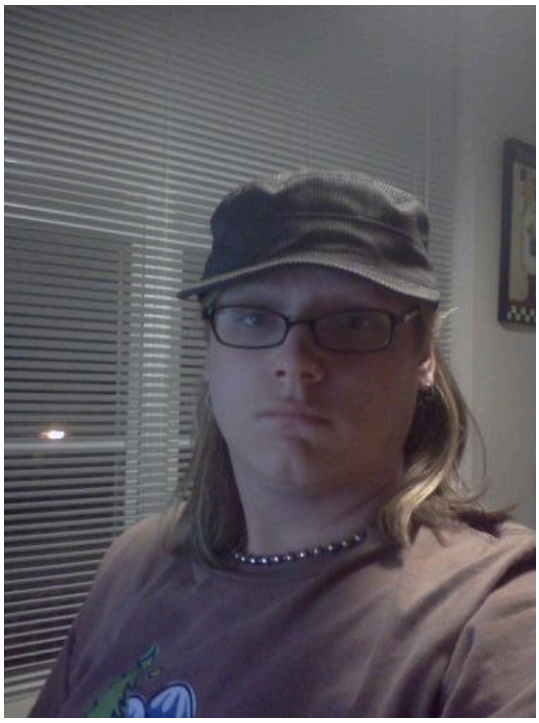
Illone Sheppypaws

Illone Sheppypaws, real name Kevin Patrick Perlstein, went by many online names like Colwyn Collie, White Shepherd, and Niklo. Kevin was the late boyfriend of Kero the Wolf and was a known member of the zoosadist ring for being a frequent contributor to Animal's Dark Paradise, a now-defunct deep web zoophilia forum. He died of heroin poisoning on Friday, July 13, 2018, at 28 years of age.



1990-01-09 -- 2018-07-13

Death & Depravity

Kevin had a history of drug abuse and sexual deviancy, attending nude parties and publishing homemade bestiality content. In the chat logs, Illone also had another name as “White Shepard” on ADP, he knew Kintari and acquired a sedative from him to rape Kintari's dog. Kevin was also in contact with "Devin", and had received videos that Tane and Devin had made together in the RLC (“Real Life Cub”) incident.

https://archive.is/BsYHb
https://archive.is/mTqLp https://archive.ph/Iyhnu
https://archive.ph/CQevQ

He was part of a group called 'Zoo Furs' on FurrTrax, and the members/friends began to mourn him within various Telegram conversations after they discovered what happened after having no contact for so long.
https://archive.is/HVBII https://archive.is/38dED https://archive.is/RKLjW
https://archive.is/5jmsX

After discovering Kevin's death, Kero makes a Tweet mourning his boyfriend, who he refers to as "Colwyn Collie". Over a week later, Kero released a video mentioning his relationship and death and contained newly commissioned artwork with the character from Twitter artist Cozy Collie. The name "Colwyn Collie" never existed. This was an alias purely created by Kero so he could talk about the issue publicly without being traced back to Illone.

https://web.archive.org/web/20190326025025/https://track9.mixtape.moe/eizput.mp4

There was also a memorial page for Kevin Patrick Perlstein who died on 13th July 2018 in Morristown, PA. A lot of the people commenting there are either his friends or strangers. Woof can also be seen commenting there under the alias "Warg Schwarz" https://web.archive.org/web/20190413235714/https://www.forevermissed.com/kevin-perlstein/
https://archive.is/7Wf80

Willow Lackett, a friend of Kevin, also put an in-memoriam message on their FurAffinity profile for "Niklo". "Niklo" is a very old alias of Illone Sheppypaws. This is evidenced through a YouTube account that links the two identities through URL and display name. Illone also had FurAffinity comments mourning his death on his Niklo account.

Spark Dalmatian

SparkDalmatian, or just Spark, full SparktheDalmation, also known as JLJ061, real name Jamie Lee Joyce; born November 11, 1973, is a fursuiter who used to live in South Bend, Indiana, USA. His fursuit was built by Armagare. In the chat, he's on a list of names, including Tane, said to be into/experienced with "RLC" (Real Life Cub). Very briefly mentioned in the Telegram leaks due to his pedophilia ties. Was arrested and sentenced to two years for child molestation in 2007 and again in 2017 for possession of child porn.
https://en.wikifur.com/wiki/SparkDalmatian

Zoophilia/Pedophilia

Spark Dalmation had some relations with another zoophile named KhordKitty, they usually chat on Telegram and under the name Khord Kittenated and Wildchild.

Icepaws

Icepaws, real name is Phillip Matthew Stallsworth, lived in Warminster, Pennsylvania, USA, he was arrested and charged in a 2017 pedophile/beastiality ring bust in Pennsylvania. He worked as a staff in Anthrocon from 2006 and Fur the ‘More from 2015 until he was caught in 2017.
https://en.wikifur.com/wiki/Icepaws
https://en.wikifur.com/wiki/2016/2017_child_abuse_arrests

Stallworth performed a factory reset on his phone, wiping its memory and deleting upwards of 20 images and videos of him having sex with dogs in an attempt to hide the evidence before the police could get access to them.
https://www.phillyburbs.com/story/news/crime/2017/04/13/police-upper-bucks-county-man/18209562007/

Stallsworth later admitted to the police that the device contained about 20 videos and images depicting him having sexual acts with at least four dogs, with the most recent being with a dog in Doylestown, Pennsylvania some three months before his arrest in February. Investigators later found a digital storage that contained said evidence. He was charged with sexual intercourse with an animal and tampering with evidence.He was freed on $25,000 unsecured bail and prohibited from contact with animals as the case proceeds.

Nacho Doggo

Nacho Doggo, also known as Rebecca Scott, was a Furry who was involved in the Kero Zoosadists Leaks reported 2 other furries involved in the Zoosadist Sex Ring known as Noodles and Cupid the Deer after videos were leaked of the 2 doing horrible actions with their dog after said actions Nacho would report both of them to the police.

Nacho Dog
@Nachodoggo
I'm recovering! I can't dress myself easily and my friend took advantage of the situation and put me in 49ers clothing. Oh the horror! Always a hawks fan!
SEAHAWKS

After that, Nacho Doggo would fake needing heart surgery and would ask for $25,000 to go to Germany to get the heart surgery, in reality; Nacho was using the money in order to escape the allegations in America and live out her life in Germany with the furry community there.

https://archive.is/8D6v5

Nacho had gotten a simple heart surgery to fake her “heart condition” and use the rest of the money to become a citizen in Germany. The reason why she wanted to leave America was because people across the internet found out that Nacho had a public beast forum account that had a picture of Nach practicing zoophilia with a dog. It was confirmed that it was Nacho by linking the Tattoo on her right shoulder to the photo.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iJ9E7YFGSU8

Nacho is a certified dog trainer thanks to a degree from a diploma mill, Animal Behavior College, and because of this is qualified to train service dogs. She worked for an unnamed K9 academy.
https://archive.is/uwVng

In 2017 she was dating Kevin Allen Richards or, Noodlescoop, and also friends with Matthew Grabowski/Cupid the Deer. She and Noodlescoop broke up at some point but remained living together. In November 2017 she was in the hospital for renal failure and had thoracentesis. This caused her to develop asthma. While hospitalized her ex-boyfriend threatened her and abused her “service” Husky dog, Diamond. She later confronted her ex-boyfriend, who threatened her more and made her have an asthma attack.

She pressed charges against them and it came out in the investigation that they had raped their dog. In contrast to what she said on Reddit, the indictment says the incidents occurred in August ~ September of that year. After that, most of the zoophiles involved in the leaks retaliated by blackmailing her by distributing videos showing she had also sexually interacted with not only her do, but several others as well. This led her to be investigated, but the charges were dropped and her dogs were returned to her. Two dogs are mentioned, Diamond and presumably her current service dog Nymeria.

In September 2018 the zoosadist leaks dropped, revealing SnakeThing and Tane had discussed drugging and raping her at a party along with Tekkita and Miskas. Also in the zoosadist leaks, we find out that Rebekah, deeply upset about the rape of her service dog and the photo that circulated, was the one who sent the photos to SnakeThing of her own volition with a cheeky emoji.

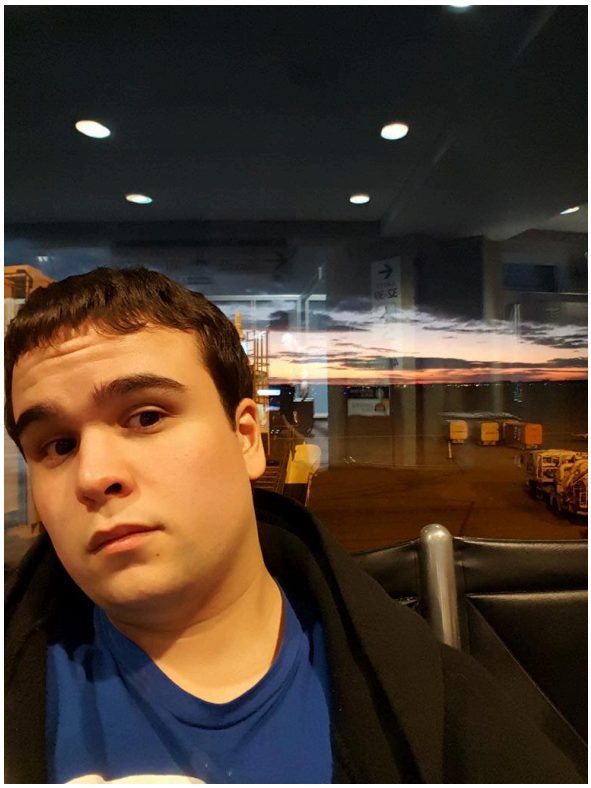
CupidtheDeer

Cupid, real name is Matthew John Grabowsky, , born June 18, 1991, is a fursuiter who lived in Seattle, Washington, USA. He worked for Alaskan Airlines at Sea-tac Airport as an engineer.
https://archive.is/T0ryc



A few years back Cupid/Cupidthedeer went by Bluetooth/BluetoothHusky and was unanimously hated in the Seattle community. He has always been fairly open about being a zoophile. 5/6 of his roommates that I know have confirmed that he was raping his dog Shadow when he lived with them. He got in trouble in 2012/2013ish for filming a video with Shadow that got spread around. In 2014, logs appeared of Cupid bragging about being able to have sex with 5 horses in one month while he lived in CO and went to college, but I haven't found anyone who still has them.

Once Cupid moved back to Seattle and got his deer suit and abandoned his old name of Bluetooth, he started getting invited to parties again. He's been accused of intentionally giving people STIs and is known double down on sexual advances when he's been told no. This dude will absolutely loose his shit if he finds out you dislike him, and had slowly been getting put back on the "fucking awful don't invite them" list in a few different groups. Early in 2017 he was caught sexting a minor (age of consent is 16 in WA, so this kid was 15). The child didn't want to press charges if I remember correctly, but information was sent anonymously to the police.

When a leaked telegram chat first appeared about him having sex with his dog in a suit, Nacho defended him. The original story was that Noodles (the man Nacho was dating at the time the video was taken) was the one who filmed the video.

https://archive.is/DziWk

In November 2017, Grabowsky was charged with a single count of felony animal cruelty in the first degree for sexually abusing NachoDoggo's dog with Noodle and buying animals off classifieds in order to engage in bestiality. Cupid's parents paid his bail,and his dogs and his car were taken away.
https://archive.is/O59mj
https://k9sentry.com/view/offender-map/entry/9/

On April 04, 2019, Grabowsky accepted a plea bargain downgrading the charge to a misdemeanor.
Based on the plea agreement the following conditions were set:

- Unsupervised probation
- Restitution of $23,293.00 for boarding of animals
- $500 restitution to the victim's fund
- Order having no contact with dogs for 24 months.

https://t.me/s/cupidthedeer_criminal_records

After Cupid was let out of jail he tried to sell his fursuit, saying it had no SPH. On August 31, 2021, charges were filed against Grabowsky for one count of child pornography in federal court through the Western District of Washington. He sexually abused a minor, filmed and distributed the media. Naia Okami was the one who called him out and exposed him.
On September 14, 2021, Grabowsky pled guilty to charges of Possession of Child Pornography. He was released on bond with restrictions and on May 6, 2022, Grabowsky was sentenced to 5 years in prison, followed by 7 years of supervision.

Noodlescoop

Noodlescoop, real name Kevin Allen Richards, born January 16, 1993, is a fursuiter who lives in Renton, Washington, USA.
https://en.wikifur.com/wiki/Noodlescoop

In November 2017, Kevin Richards was charged with one count of felony animal cruelty in the first degree alongside with Matthew Gabrowsky(Cupid), one count of unlawful imprisonment, one count of assault of the second degree, one count of extortion, one order of assault, and four counts of violating a protection order which NachoDoggo had against Richards.

https://www.seattlepi.com/local/crime/article/man-charged-sexual-assault-therapy-dog-Renton-12353923.php

On March 29, 2019, Richards accepted a plea bargain, pleading guilty to felony animal cruelty in the first degree and one count violating a protection order while the other charges were dropped. As a result, instead of being sentenced to prison, he was given a suspended sentence and probation based on court records. Noodles stayed in jail, until eventually investigators were given access to his phone, and his bail was dropped from 400,000 to 25,000.

Those that got away

Unfortunately, for every member in the 2018 leaks who was caught, 5 more got away, escaping in complete anonymity. Possibly, and probably, still harassing animals and being present in public spaces. This list was partially derived from “Pukebuckets” megaform on the leak. This list is designed to be as temporary as possible, as once a general grasp of an individual has been gained they will receive their own subdocument.

If you have any information or would like to help find information on these individuals, contact Haloguy7
At Hal0guy7777777@gmail.com

Directly involved in the ring

AffyWolf

Mariana McQueen/AffyWolf/PsychedelicSaber/BigtittyTusky/MilkDestroyer was mentioned specifically by SnakeThing as a zoosuiter who would meet them at Midwest Fur Fest. Affywolf/Tusky was one of the suiters explicitly mentioned who would be joining them (among at least eight other zoosuiters) to practice zoophilia on a dog (or several) who were going to be brought for that purpose by an unnamed owner during the convention. Although Tusky may not have been a sadist, they were a zoophile nonetheless. Tusky also has ties to Furry Valley, during which she decried them, then flipped and supported them, and then got doxed by Simba who was suspicious about her motives. Was also outed as a drug dealer.

Anubisfur

Brandon Siegel/AnubisYote/Anubisfur was mentioned in SnakeThing's zoosuiter list. Anubis attempted to DMCA kiwifarms after he was given his thread. There are photos of his dog humping him in his fursuit and a half-eaten (by a dog, not Brandon) dildo. Following a ton of other Twitter zoos such as CupidtheDeer and Stormy_AD.

Blitzz

Blitzz provided zoo porn of Nightcoon. Notably used the phrase "their" animals in regards to the video, implying that Blitzz and Nightcoon own the animals co-operatively.

Campachu

Sidney Delane Curry, or Campachu was a buddy of Snakething, Woof, and Tim Win from Louisiana. Sidney shared videos involving him raping his dogs with the group, and had a noted obsession with branding, scalding water enemas, and an interest in necrophillia. Animals he'd killed (either from torture or regular hunting) were tossed in the swamp.

Devin

"Devin" - Minor Groomed by Tane and SnakeThing - Referred to as a "real-life cub" by Tane, both Tane and SnakeThing intended to meet him in order to create child porn content to share and distribute. It was later confirmed that he had sex with Tane on two separate occasions, who filmed the first encounter in a car on a go-pro hidden in his fursuit head and shared the video with SnakeThing. Devin was also sent to Sangie to exchange illicit files, and was actively being groomed to trade zoophile content and to run his own group.

DickBitchMolly

DickBitchMolly has a fetish for girls making out with dogs and would offer financial incentives for them to do so. Attempted to get Kintari's exes to do it, some of whom accepted. https://docs.google.com/document/d/1DxX3r3HWM9GCEdDQe2rtjepVGEYcZOtLuQAWTxEOwHc/edit

Humacyrnus

Humacyrnus/Neczoo, Twitter turns up a bunch of responses to an account of the same name in relation to zoophilia in 2013. Humacyrnus talked extensively with SnakeThing about their attraction to puppies and other small animals and initially claimed he only had an academic interest in the hardzoo content (claiming he was just "writing a book" about zoophilia). The logs under his Neczoo alt, however, made it clear it was not just talk. In his conversations with SnakeThing, Humancyrnus discussed "sacrificing" one of the puppies from his dog's litters (he's a breeder) after being incited into re-enacting some of SnakeThing and Woof's puppy videos. Allegedly lives somewhere in the southeast US.

JackeeCarter

Joel E. Young/JackeeCarter/AshtondeShibbes was a vet tech of all things (wonder if he knew Joshua Lockett irl?) who shared content with SnakeThing on telegram, who also identified him as a zoosuiter. Followed a lot of shady characters on twitter, specifically dog-and-hohgy7rse fuckers like DirtyDotti, CupidtheDeer, Foxbearence, Zaush, and NakedStormy (who was another of the zoosuiters mentioned on the list to go to MFF for the dog gangbang).

Jigsaw

Jigsaw made a load of content involving the torture of animals, specifically by inflation with water. Used a lot of snakes and other similar animals. A lot of his content was shared around on 8chan and other sites. Recently proclaimed he was leaving animal torture 5eva and that he has deep regrets about what he did or something.

Miskas

Miskas was named by Tane as being willing to help drug/rape Nacho. Was named as being into RLC on Zeta Omega, and is allegedly notorious to furries in the southwest for being a serial child rapist.

Mo Mo

Mo Mo talked extensively about fucking dogs and snakes with SnakeThing. Used his snake (a ball python) as a dildo on himself and his (old, likely deceased) dog, and claimed to have a friend who used corn snakes in a similar fashion. Allegedly tortured rats while feeding them to the snake.

Sephius Riverdale

Patrick Prauger/Sephius Riverdale made content, rather than just talking about it. Making his rounds in german dogmask gimpsuit communities and being ground zero for spreading STDs at a german furcon.

Shepnuts

Shepnuts talked with SnakeThing about raping his dog and was very interested in drugging animals. Snakething set Shepnuts and his dogs up with zoosuiters and recommended that he record content in secret of any encounters that Shepnuts was involved with, likely for content creation and blackmail purposes. Shepnuts had also admitted to living near Chico, California but eventually moved to Sacramento. Had plans to go to BLCF.

SlutCat

Raphael Beltrand/Stormyfag/Stormy_AD/SlutCat Admitted in a CuriousCat multiple times that he was humped by a white german shepherd. Snakething also had him in his "zoosuiters going to fuck a dog at MFF" list.

Zeta Omega

Zeta Omega was noted by Tane to be extremely manipulative and pushy, probably sociopathic (incredible given Tane's own interests). Described as liking "cubs" who are younger than Devin. Provided SnakeThing with a list of fursuiters into pedophillia, including Tane, WolfyDNA/Tuskyn, Cupid, and SparkyDalmation. Snakething claims Zeta had plans in 2018 to meet up with someone who is a parent to a child and intends to molest the drugged child in a fursuit, and recommended Tane for assistance. Allegedly knew the individual who created the now infamous "Hungbitch" video. Allegedly had a Kilcodo Costumes fursuit.

Xyro

Xyro, formerly known as Zentra, is a fursuiter who lives in McKinney, Texas, USA. His fursona is a Labrador Retriever and Siberian Husky mix, Xyro's fursuit was constructed in 2016 by Sophie Cabra.
https://web.archive.org/web/20180414102829/http://db.fursuit.me/?c=viewuser&nick=Xyro https://web.archive.org/web/20180508213835/http://db.fursuit.me/?c=viewsuit&id=4888 https://web.archive.org/web/20180508213858/http://www.furaffinity.net/user/xyro/

James "Jimmy" Reynolds Faryewicz/Xyro/Xyrotr1/ZB/Zentra was born on February 23rd, 1988, and is portrayed as the rich guy of the group, who Levi was confident shuffles money into creating zoo porn. Into Hardzoo and was mentioned for the meet in "The Woods" in the EU along with Sephius. He gained popularity in the Brony fandom for his skill at uploading episodes on time and became part of A/V crews for various furry cons. He knew Tane from working alongside him, and had confided personal details with SnakeThing that correlated to his private life outside the logs; despite his claims that he had been impersonated, the details he shared as Xyro (his Telegram handle) indicated that Xyro and Zentra were indeed the same person.

Little is known about Xyro before the incident, he was only a small content creator, and as such most of his online presence was not previously saved. After his involvement with the Zoosadism leaks he quickly managed to purge nearly all of his online presence, even going as far as to initiate a privacy blanking of his Wikifur page. As well as deleting his Twitter, and YouTube, as well as disabling his Furaffinity page. Unfortunately, his previous history is unknown, as to how he got involved, or his current whereabouts. He had amassed over 3000 followers on Twitter, with over 50,000 likes, and over 1000 posts, as well as accumulating over 4000 Subscribers on YouTube at one point, although this was decreasing steadily even before the channel purge in 2019.

Named/Mentioned within the ring

Dobie

"Dobie"/*DobiePincher was a dog owner in Southern California who was recommended to Tane for beastiality videos. Dobie is in the military, which SnakeThing had a video of. Dobie was a friend of "Golden Retriever"/blondedog until blondedog attempted to get Dobie into animal torture and they had a falling out over it. A video of him having sex with a husky in a bathroom exists. He ran bestiality parties at his South California home and would frequent the Furry nightclub, “TAIL!”

Pakyto Dingo

Florent Durin/Pakyto was caught watching zoophile and zoosadist material on a video he uploaded to xvideo and he used to date R.C. Fox who was into child porn. Outed by Akela and rumored to have ties with Saito Fox.

Ozonecolfpup

*Stuart Allen/Tyson Allen/ozonecolfpup was described as being into "RLC" aka pedophillia and hardzoo. Was mentioned as a zoosuiter in relatation to the zoo meet at MFF meet. Was eventually arrested on child sex charges in the UK.

Tuskyn

Tuskyn/WolfyDNA used to date Brexxie. It's unclear if he was a zoosadist. Tuskyn was mentioned by SnakeThing and Tane as being a zoophile and into "RLC" or "real-life cub", SnakeThing's go-to term for actual child pornography and molestation. Believed to be in California by Tane. Went to MFF and had a content sharing agreement with SnakeThing, and would apparently only show content in person without file trading. Had a Kilcodo Costumes fursuit.

TechRoo

Jordy de Nie/TechRoo/Tech_RooAD/TheLeadProgrammer, mentioned by SnakeThing. Came onto the farms to defend his honor and it was discovered that he had a Beasttracker account with the same body pics as his After Dark Twitter account, as well as accounts on AnimalPorn.Rocks and Zoo.Cab. Also liked some pro-zoophillia propaganda on his Twitter. Looking at the videos on his account showed him fucking several ponies of the decidedly real-world variety.

Indirectly Involved

Akela

Akela worked with Shadowwoof to out the zoosadist telegram. Similar to other zoosadists, Akela also had a blackmail fetish. Neither Akela nor Shadowwoof went to the cops despite having mountains of information (plenty of which could've bought them the best plea bargain on the planet) and were content to infodump on the internet for other people to deal with while crouching behind Furvengers. I really suspect Akela and Shadowwoof released their information to power trip and jerk off about pulling one over on the other sadists rather than out of genuine loathing toward them. Currently running the Telegram leaks since Shadowwoof stepped down. Akela was the one running the Aspect Zeta dogfucking group that was going down at MFF, which SnakeThing was scouting for.

Ashley Zoe Fox

Ashley Zoe Fox is a YouTuber who was quick to defend Kero when the leaks first appeared to public view, commonly known to communicate with zoophiles, even marrying one. Used to own babyfur.com and lives in a house with four other ABDL oldies, one of whom used to date Tuskyn.

Brexxie

Van J. Terry/Brexxie. Has an empty Beastforum by the same name. Draws a lot of AB/DL. Husband to Ashley Zoe Fox.

Elfasi

Elfasi was noted as having ties to both the UK and West Coast zoophile and pedophile rings and has hung out on Equinas's zoo ranch. Worked with the Furvengers or ZSIS.

Goliath

Mark A. Lewis/Goliath Married to Tigeristiger. Photos of him jumping around and kissing a dog while naked.

Shadowwoof

Shadowwoof, often mistaken for Woof based on a similar username, Shadowwoof was working with Akela to expose the zoosadism telegram group and their associates. Shadowwoof is a zoophile himself, being doxed by Furry Valley. Owned a bunch of zoo groups and is engaged in blackmail with Simba. Has stepped down from maintaining the Telegram leaks. Allegedly running Zeta Corner now, a new Zoophillia Telegram ring that boasts over a thousand members, such as Dominic Rodriguez.

Snowflake the Pup

Joseph Shane Soltau/Dell the Engie/Snowflake the Pup, Outed on Telegram as owning the Zoophillia is Love group as well as being a self-admitted pedophile who has been known to seek out child and animal porn.

Tigeristiger

Daryl W. Grimsley/Tigeristiger, Admitted to zoophilia on Beastforum. Draws AB/DL. lives with Ashley and Van. Dating Goliath.

Relation to Furaffinity

Athus

Bryan Dyer/Athus, Died in a car crash. Partner to Narse (the dude who drew most of Bad Dragon's more famous promotional art). Was outed as part of that dolphin bestiality video that was making the rounds over a decade ago.*mn hired by Dragoneer before drama happened; got rehired as admin a second time before getting tossed into administrating the FA forums instead. Nowadays he's FurAffinity's Director of Operations.

Dragoneer

Dragoneer, Worked with Simba, Eevee, Chase, and Zaush, among others. Notorious for covering up allegations of rape and/or zoophilia among the ranks of FA. Ran ads for Bad Dragon.

Drakkor

Frank Sanchez/Drakkor, Helped produce the video Athus was tied to. Now as irrelevant as the rest of the ring as far as I know, and was the only one positively identified other than Athus.

Legarto

Burmese Python/Legarto, took over PetLust for a while before shutting it down due to new credit card restrictions making the site's continued operation difficult. Worked with MobianFox. Would go to states where bestiality was legal so nothing could be done about him and Mobian filming and distributing their content.

Mark Peterson

Mark Peterson, Former owner of Petlust. Went to Connyland and posed with the dolphins being raped by the dolphin ring crew.

MobianFox

MobianFox, is involved in videos for PetLust's archives. Was in correspondence with Dragoneer who, for his part, lamented about the "4chan internet vigilantism" that outed MobianFox as an animal rapist to the fandom at large.

Reco

Reco - Petlust - Fucks dogs or something. Further information is needed.

Rotti3Dog

Kamo/Duke/Rotti3Dog/Chico the Rottie, Outed by KindKabsCorner as a zoophile, rapist, and animal abuser who posted about his rottweiler on Beastforum. Apparently, Kamo warned other users against "narrow-minded police officers" with regards to reporting crimes that might expose their bestiality interest. Kamo also worked for the Arizona Department of Public Safety.

Shimrod

Peter Ping/Shimrod, Posted about zoophilic dolphins on Beastforum.

ShaneAlexander

ShaneAlexander Former employee who blew the whistle on BleuColt and his family. Apparently had a very difficult time getting local law enforcement to take his allegations seriously after he reported some of their own officers partaking in horse buggery.

StreaktheTiger

StripeyButt/StreaktheTiger, Not much to add, unless someone digs up more about him.

Varka

Jan Mulders?/Varka, Owns Herpy.net, a site specifically catering to reptile-based zoophiles. Employs a fair number of known zoophiles and apparently wanted to do live-castings for their dildos through Varka's beastiality farm potentially clarified that the farm was owned by an associate named BleuColt, not Varka himself. Ran ads on FA and other assorted furry sites for years. Associated with Sprink/Fausty as well, creating a VPN with him centered in Chilliwack, Canada.

YiffDatCat

YiffDatCat, Kamo's boyfriend. Cubphile, possibly a zoophile given his partner.

Others

- Marlo Hyena - Zoosuiter - Secretive and named by Snakething as being into hardzoo. Partner of someone named "Skye" who is also described as being interested in similar content.
- Nightcoon - Zoosuiter - Porn was circulated by Blitzz in the Telegram chat. According to Tane, Nightcoon owns animals specifically for zoophillia purposes in SoCal.
- Kylefoxx/kylef0xx - Zoosuiter - Made porn exclusively for SnakeThing, who accidentally outed his identity to Tane.
- Raptor Red - Zoosuiter - SnakeThing provided Tane with a video of his zoosuit content. From Alberta, Canada.
- "Dimples"/Foxy/Foxybeans - Zoosuiter - Noted as being into hardzoo. Introduced SnakeThing and Tane to one another.
- "Bri" - Zoosuiter, owner of a male dog who was contacted by Snakething for the MFF meet. Didn't show.
- Knotteddog/knotted shep - Zoosuiter, Snakething's second contact when "Bri" fell through.
- Hybernation - Zoophile that SnakeThing allegedly had porn of (assume this for the rest of the list honestly). FA gallery is chock fucking full with feral and beastiality dog porn.
- Paradox/Yourmainparadox - Zoosuiter, not to be confused with Paradox Red Fox/ctcwired. Based in Florida. Supposedly had a secret stash of content that SnakeThing and Tane intended on drugging him to gain access to.
- Blackie wolf - Zoosuiter, owns a dog.
- Ruffa Husky - Zoosuiter.
- ponyfox - Zoosuiter.
- xyanidefusky - Zoosuiter.
- "pink" (possibly DottiPink?) - Zoosuiter.
- Lupyfur - Zoosuiter.
- Diesel/Wolf-Diesel - Zoosuiter.
- greskilvulf - Zoosuiter.
- Castian Badgerpup - Zoosuiter.
- Kieren Shep - Zoosuiter, roomed with Tane during MFF.
- Chase Bawzda/dogislove - Zoosuiter.
- Bloowuff - Zoosuiter.
- Phillysatark - Zoosuiter, another name mentioned as going to MFF for the dog gangbang meet.
- Ruffa - Zoosuiter.

- Meekrat45 - Zoosuiter. Located somewhere near Buffalo, New York.
- Buck/R3dpit - Zoosuiter. Might be R3DRUNNER on Inkbunny, though very debatable. Offered his dogs up for sex. Located somewhere around NYC and Conneticut.
- Cenny - Wannabee zoosuiter, SnakeThing was arranging to give him an animal.
- backlash 1 - Zoosuiter into hardzoo, possibly Backlash91 on Inkbunny.
- Wolf the Otter - Zoosuiter.
- floofdog - Zoosuiter.
- Leon Pup - Zoosuiter in Aspect Zeta.
- "Rottie Zoosuiter" - Zeta Omega associate, implied to be the individual who made HungBitch.
- Moose/DaMoosePup - Mentioned by Tane as being a zoophile. Is a typical gay BDSM model or something. *Noted as being into hardzoo as well.
- Leonfox/LeonFox001 - Zoophile? Owner of U18chan. Not to be confused with Leon_The_Fox on Twitter.
- Paradox Red Wolf/Paradox Red Fox/ctcwired - Anthrocon 2019 staffer. Friend to LeonFox and AshtondeShibbes; not the same person as Paradox/yourmainparadox. Has been found sympathizing with zoos and pedophiles as recently as last year.

Feral Yiff Subreddits

Feral yiff, which typically refers to sexual content involving anthropomorphic animals, can be considered problematic for several reasons. Firstly, it often involves the depiction of animals in a sexualized manner, which raises ethical concerns about the representation of non-human creatures. Additionally, creating or distributing such content can violate laws related to animal welfare and obscenity, depending on jurisdiction. This type of material can also contribute to the normalization of harmful behaviors or attitudes toward animals. As a result, many communities and legal systems view feral yiff as inappropriate and potentially illegal.

Zooier Than Thou

“Zooier Than Thou is the world's first monthly podcast covering the zoophile community and all things zooey and wonderful. Featuring in-depth discussions, dating advice, and original songs and skits, all with a great deal of playful candor, Zooier Than Thou sets itself apart with an openly positive and joyful interpretation of what it is to be a zoophile.”

“Zooier Than Thou is yet another monthly podcast covering the zoophile community and all things zooey and wonderful. Featuring current events, dating advice, and insider tips on rubbing shoulders with the Zooluminati elite, all with a great deal of silliness, Zooier Than Thou sets itself apart from the pack with an openly positive and joyful interpretation of what it is to be a zoophile.”

- Old website description
https://web.archive.org/web/20210118174647/https://zoo.wtf/

Zooier Than Thou is a podcast dedicated to zoophilia. Although the channel has been terminated multiple times on YouTube, it continues to practice ban evasion on the platform, as well as creating additional content, this content usually violates YouTube's TOS on nudity/sexual content.
https://www.youtube.com/@zooierthanthou
https://support.google.com/youtube/answer/2802002?hl=en

They have also previously visited furry conventions.
https://twitter.com/StoriesZoo/status/1563488908436205569

Despite their public promotion of zoophilia and zoosadism, their donations have managed to achieve roughly 50$ per week, topping out at 81$ dollars in 2021.
https://web.archive.org/web/20210102123320/https://zoo.wtf/

Their podcasts commonly discuss many questions about, or against zoophilia. They also sometimes will have guest speakers on as well, the most well-known example is Hypnotist Sappho.

Toggle

“Toggle is one of the original co-founders of ZooTT, bringing his background in communications and media to the table. Though it may sound like his balls haven't dropped yet, he is known for speaking his mind and using his voice to discuss difficult topics with nuance and a healthy dose of profanity. Toggle likes to spend his free time playing Mario Kart, making terrible puns, and writing zooey rap songs.”

- Online Description

Despite running Zooier Than Thou for many years, he remains anonymous, going under an alias and using a voice changer to hide his identity, his only known personal information is that he is American, and lives in Tennessee, a state where beastiality is a felony.

Operation: ZooTube

Zooier Than Thou was founded on the idea of being decentralized media. In this spirit, we’d like your help spreading ZooTT across YouTube. On this page, you’ll find video clips and episodes that you can upload to your own YouTube channels. Choose your favorite skits and discussions and share them on any video site you’d like! Check out our guide on creating an alternate, zooey YouTube channel, and use the resources here to democratize ZooTT!

- Official Description of Operation: Zootube

https://zoo.wtf/zootube/

Operation Zootube was a campaign to democratize the podcast and resist de-platforming released in November 2020, after its original YouTube channel was taken down for pornography, which was taken by Toggle as ridiculous. Zooier Than Thou was founded with the idea of being accessible decentralized media, the hosts recognized the problems of relying on third-party services as it would mean they could be wiped out eventually.

The operation was meant for any platform but focused on YouTube. The operation stripped down skits that could violate YouTube's TOS, such as "Ask Zooey", and included a directory of contents to post. Due to the use of non-commercial assets, monetization wasn't allowed. It was recommended to mark clips as age-restricted and to hold all comments for review. It also suggested linking to the original feed and to each host's Twitter profile in the description.

It was suggested the use of the following tags: “zoo, zoophile, zoophilia, zoott, zooier than thou, toggle, fausty, doug spink, bestiality, zoosexual, zoosexuality, uniquely dangerous, podcast, educational, funny, interviews, sexuality, sex, queer, sketch comedy, comedy, ztt, informative, minority, positive, positivity, stay defiant, furry, furries, fandom, animal, animal welfare, activism, animal rights”

Recognizing the limitations of YouTube, the operation had divided two folders of content to upload: those lasting less than 15 minutes and those lasting longer. It recommended using ProtonMail to register an alternate account and a temporary or public phone number to confirm accounts to be able to upload content longer than 15 minutes.
https://en.wikifur.com/wiki/Zooier_Than_Thou

Although there is nothing in YouTube’s TOS directly against creating multiple burner accounts to promote a singular channel, it is generally looked down upon and shunned by the wider community.

Douglas Spink/Fausty

“Fausty was no stranger to the zoo community, a name that's both famous and infamous, depending on whom you ask. Known for his outspoken zoo activism, his work in computer security and privacy, and for literally jumping off of cliffs (BASE 715), Fausty enjoyed reading everything he could get his paws on, studying law, and being an incredible dork. - Official Description from the Zooier Than Thou Podcast on Fausty

https://zoo.wtf

Fausty, more well-known as Douglas Brian Spink, is a well-known zoophile and is commonly described as “The most known Zoophilia Defender in history”

Involvement in Beastality

Fausty began his career as an analyst with Boston Consulting Group, where he consulted with Fortune 100 companies. In the mid-to-late 1990s, he helped found and support several early Internet and technology companies in Oregon. Through the sale of several small businesses, he became a multimillionaire. Despite this, he declared bankruptcy in 2002.
https://www.winnipegfreepress.com/arts-and-life/entertainment/books/2018/11/24/world-of-animal-lovers-has-a-dark-secret-side

After this, he began smuggling illegal items in and out of Canada until a traffic stop in 2005 where officers noticed him being overly protective of a female German shepherd, this was low on the concern list compared to the 372 pounds of cocaine in the car.
https://www.spokesman.com/blogs/sirens/2010/apr/20/police-saw-signs-smuggler-liked-bestiality/

During this same period, Kenneth Pinyan died as a result of sexual intercourse with a horse during the “Enumclaw horse sex case” which was linked to Fausty due to a license plate belonging to him on a car fleeing the scene after dropping Kenneth off at the hospital. Spink was arrested in late 2005. Kenneth’s death rapidly set Washington State into motion to enact an Anti-Beastality bill, prohibiting sexual intercourse with any animal, or recordings, images, or other forms of media portraying such acts.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Enumclaw_horse_sex_case http://apps.leg.wa.gov/rcw/default.aspx?cite=16.52.205

In 2010, whilst in parole a Tennessee investigator tipped off Spink’s parole officer about possible trespassing and further beastality occurring on Spink’s ranch. SWAT was activated to the ranch on charges of Spink violating his parole, leading to the arrest of one individual, who pleaded guilty to animal abuse charges. Later in the year, he received 3 more years of prison for owning a website that contained videos and images of zoophilia and 2 years of parole only if he shut down the website and deleted all files belonging to it.

https://www.seattletimes.com/seattle-news/man-who-ran-animal-sex-operation-sentenced-for-probation-violation/
https://www.seattletimes.com/seattle-news/this-guy-really-needs-supervision/

In 2013, after serving his sentence, he received parole only if he would agree to let police regularly check on any hard drives that he owned for pornographic contact, as well as refraining from any voluntary physical contact with animals. He agreed, but later technicians found that he had managed to encrypt files on some of the hard drives, which caused police to be prompted not to return any hard drives they had confiscated.
https://law.justia.com/cases/federal/appellate-courts/ca9/12-30068/12-30068-2013-05-09.html

After his parole ended, almost immediately, Fausty returned to beastality websites, obtained a dog, and bought horses from a nearby farm. Following this, he was given an additional 9 months of parole which was “the longest sentence U.S. District Court Judge Ricardo Martinez could impose” In a 2014 interview, Spink stated of his public crimes, "A core precedent was set: No longer can zoophobes in this country batter and coerce people like me into silence with threats of violence."
https://www.seattletimes.com/seattle-news/man-who-promotes-sex-with-animals-is-back-in-prison/
https://www.vice.com/en/article/nnqdpx/apparently-animals-consent-to-sex-in-the-beastiality-brothel

After his release from prison, Spink crossed the border into Canada and was arrested and jailed at least twice for entering the country and obtaining dogs, and at one point was the suspect in the disappearance of his neighbor’s dog, actions disallowed by his parole. During one arrest he held a machete to his dog’s throat and bit an officer’s hand in a standoff with the police.
https://lfpress.com/2016/02/23/douglas-spink-ordered-returned-to-united-states-where-he-is-wanted-for-animal-cruelty

Spink ignored this and continued owning dogs, starting a zoophilia podcast called Zooier Than Thou and taking part in Beastality-related activism until he died in 2020 due to cancer, he was 48.
https://zoo.wtf/zootube/

Activism/Personal Life

Spink was outspoken about his beliefs that animals can consent to sexual activity with humans. During a 2010 court case, Spink's attorney explained, "He believes it's a sexual orientation and that the arguments against it are the same ones once made against homosexuality or miscegenation". Additionally, in a YouTube video, Spink discussed his 10-year romantic relationship with one of the horses on his farm.
https://www.seattletimes.com/seattle-news/man-who-ran-animal-sex-operation-sentenced-for-probation-violation/

In addition to his actions and advocacy, Spink worked on projects against "zoophobic bigots" to raise legal funds for defending his fellow "zoosexuals". He also worked to develop a darknet VPN that offered zoophiles a way to traffic pornography with complete anonymity.
https://dr.lib.iastate.edu/entities/publication/cb5aebb8-b432-4a38-a60d-50f290abeec7

In an interview, he indicated that he had been diagnosed with Asperger syndrome. He also indicated that he was "a lifelong (if imperfect) vegetarian" and animal rights activist.

Zooville

Zooville is an online chat-based service that is similar to a platform like Reddit. The content on Zooville is primarily focused on zoophilia and bestiality. Zooville forum is a replacement of Zooville, which in of itself was a replacement to another online forum called “Beastforum,” containing similar content. Interestingly, Zooville has been manually expunged from the Wayback machine via an admin request, an oddity for forum sites.

ZooVille's creation began when Beastforum announced its shutdown to its userbase a month prior, in January 2019. It was founded by ZTHorse and several other zoophiles from the ex-Beastforum membership who felt the continuing need for a zoophile forum on the open Web. The new moderator team soon opened private chatrooms on Beastforum to invite prominent users from the forum into the initial funding phase, and to gather as many zoophiles as possible from Beastforum. This was given the project name "exodus". After Project Exodus was complete, the initial startup funding was achieved and zooville.org (now zoovilleforum.net) was launched.
https://zoophilia.wiki/index.php?title=ZTHorse

Zooville.org (now zoovilleforum.net) is currently working with two universities to produce research studies into zoophilia. The first is from Northwestern University, and is being headed by Michael J. Bailey PHD. The Second is from the University of Saskatchewan, and is being headed by Alexandra Zidenberg and overseen by Prof. Dr. Mark Olver.
https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/36192665/
https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/30639855/

Additionally, the current website of Zooville bans pedophilia, necrophilia, fetish contents like scat/vomit, and what they believe is “real animal abuse” to avoid certain law enforcement.

Old website: https://www.zooville.org/
Current website: https://www.zoovilleforum.net/

As of Nov 2024, the site has gained a sister site called “Zoocadia” https://zoocadia.net/index.php

Data Breach

The Initial Launch of zooville.org (now zoovilleforum.net) used the vBulletin forum software. This was considered zooville.org's 1.0 phase and lasted from February 2019 until September 2019. This forum software was abandoned after the release (and subsequent exploitation) of a 0-day security breach, which allowed vBulletin to leak zooville.org's 1.0 database, as well as the data of many other major corporations. The leak wasn't a specific attack on the forum.
https://haveibeenpwned.com/PwnedWebsites#Zooville

After September 2019, ZooVille switched to Xenforo forum software. This switch-over meant all previous members had to re-register using encrypted email services. The forum also increased security measures and swept IP's from users on a regular basis in case of a future 0-day vulnerability on the software.

According to urlvoid, the country host of the Zooville forum is Luxembourg, however, this is more likely to be false because there are various ways to fake this information like Offshore hosting.

Controversies

In September 2019, the zoophilia and bestiality forum Zooville suffered a data breach. The usernames and email addresses of 71k members were accessed via an unpatched vulnerability in the vBulletin forum software and then subsequently distributed online.
https://haveibeenpwned.com/PwnedWebsites#Zooville

The doxxed data, which contains dates of birth, email addresses, IP addresses, passwords, and usernames has been posted publicly by the official account of HiBP on Twitter on Oct 20, 2019. No longer after that, the old website of Zooville (zooville.org) announced the breach and then they decided to shut it down.
https://twitter.com/haveibeenpwned/status/1185668262538838016

However, a forum called Raid Forum has documented the leaked information and they claimed that it had a dump, but their website has been terminated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation(FBI) so the links posted there are no longer available.
https://web.archive.org/web/20191023171758/https://raidforums.com/Thread-zooville-org-full-dump

- Zooville's current website is more secure than the previous one. To view all content, you must create an account. So, the people listed above are the staff/moderators who chatted on the public channels.
- Raidforum claimed that one admin of the previous Zooville website, JoshCow, also ran zoo.cab, an online chat service similar to Zooville.
- The link which leads to the leaked data provided in HiBP's Twitter post is no longer accessible.

Hypnotist Sappho

Hypnotist Sappho is a furry YouTuber with around 15k subscribers who did hypnosis furry videos on a game called VrChat. Later in her career, Hypnotist Sappho came under fire for admitting to being a zoophile as well as having inappropriate conversations with minors. (Source needed)
https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCJ1398XCuoKfoDd2vP4nplQ

Zoophilia

In September 2021, she uploaded a video titled "Coming Out About Things", where she admitted that she was a zoophile and attempted to justify bestiality. She said that she was specifically attracted to dogs, and also compared being a zoophile to being a member of the LGBTQ+ community.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DbD4eI5jbL0

She received major backlash from YouTubers who called her out and made videos of her. She would respond with a video titled "For the Haters", and disabled likes and dislikes on her channel. However, comments were still allowed, though most of them were negative.
https://youtu.be/ZfOpVZgGnAw?feature=shared

The Twitter community was also present in some outrage after she added both "ζ" (the letter Z in the Greek alphabet) and "MAP" (an acronym for Minor-Attracted Person) to her bio. (Source Needed)
https://twitter.com/hirorwar/status/948563041771249670

She also had a lewd AD (After Dark) account on Twitter, where she posted NSFW and zoophilic art. Most of it was cub art of young furries interacting in sexual scenarios with someone older. On December 18, 2021, this account was suspended, alongside her main Twitter account. (Source needed)

In response to the suspension of her Twitter accounts, she had made her own Mastodon instance called "zetamu.club", which was shut down on January 6, 2022. However, it redirected to "sappho.rip", which she said that she is "killing off" the Hypnotist Sappho persona. (Source needed)

Grooming

On December 19, 2021, she was exposed for grooming and dating a 16-year-old child named Kylo, from whom she requested nude pictures, and had sent money to, and actively made sexual remarks to him. She had also allegedly groomed another minor named Julia, which resulted in her committing suicide. On January 1, 2022, she privatized both of her videos which garnered backlash. On January 21, 2022, she deleted all her videos on her YouTube channel.
https://showbizcorner.com/is-charges-hypnotist-sappho-aka-sappho-zoo-arrested-what-did-the-youtuber-do

A YouTube community post on her channel explained how her mental health had declined over time and how she had been put into long-term psychiatric care. It also stated that she was being treated for paranoia, delusions, severe anxiety and depression, and paraphilic disorder. Consequently, she has been prescribed Paxil, Trazodone, and a high dose of Seroquel, which is an antipsychotic, it is believed these past symptoms may have been the cause of her past actions, although this is speculation.

Aftermath

On August 6, 2022, she announced through her channel's community tab that "her time was up" and that she would be attempting suicide by shooting herself. Although some people encouraged her to seek help and tried to convince her not to do it and talk her out of it, others had suspected that she was feigning her suicide, possibly to "leave behind her online persona". (Source needed)

The following month, in September 2022, she would resume her online appearance, automatically proving she had not died from suicide. She also retired from her "Hypnotist" persona and changed her channel name to Valerie Sappho (Editors note; She has gone back to using Hypnotist Sappho as her YouTube username, although she still refers to herself as Valerie in her community posts.), also announcing that she had decided against going through with her suicide attempt. She explained that she was still getting professional help from her attraction to children and requested her remaining audience to not idolize or search for information about her anymore, as being on the internet was harmful to her mental health.
https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCJ1398XCuoKfoDd2vP4nplQ

However, she would soon publish another community post of her verbally attacking HarleyTBS and Coyote Lovely, as well as someone referred to as "Oranges", referring to them as "special ed". She stated that she wanted to resume her online presence and "swing back twice as hard", seemingly out of spite, demonstrating that she had not changed, despite everything that had happened to her. This post has since been deleted.

(Source needed)

On December 10, 2022, She made a new YouTube channel going by the name Glowing Brightly, which focuses on cybersecurity topics, although this channel would be abandoned and deleted later.

On February 1, 2024, She made two posts once again stating her remaining audience does not idolize her, insisting that she had burned down every bridge she had with anyone she used to know and that she did not support her previous actions in any way shape or form.

Khord Kitty

Khord Kitty (real name Gabe/Gabriel) was a fursuiter who often went to furry conventions and also made music. Khord Kitty even had some of his music appear in a furry musical at one point.
https://en.wikifur.com/wiki/Khord_Kitty

Khord Kitty made a big impact on the furry community from the beginning, however in a bad way. People always made remarks about how awful Khord Kitty's suit smelled, and that it was never washed, brushed or kept in good upkeep.
https://youtu.be/hyl-BHGUbaY?feature=shared

Zoophilia/Pedophila

Gabriel brought his son to a babyfur meetup and claimed he "did it for the lulz" rather than his actual intentions which was most likely to hand his own son out to other pedophiles. Gabriel is known to be friends with Growly who he has met in person at multiple conventions, Kintari, ZJWolf, CrusaderCat, and Foxler, most of whom were also involved with the 2018 Zoophile leaks and the latter of whom he has done interviews with. Despite claiming that his association with these people is purely coincidental, it was discovered that he had bookmarked numerous sites dedicated to practicing bestiality and snuff/gore.

Screencaps were provided recently that showed that Gabriel (at 27 years old) had been actively grooming a 17-year-old in NYC by providing the teen with drugs such as marijuana, mushrooms, etc. so that they would tolerate his sexual advances. These screenshots were discovered and presented to the police but, due to 17 being the age of consent in NYC, nothing was actively done. Gabe had also been fighting with Deb over custody of their two children.

Breakup

Deborah Kay Butler (formerly Sickel)/BunBun was Gabe's ex-wife, embroiled in a vicious divorce battle on the 'Farms. Talked about bestiality on Facebook, claiming that she saw herself "As more bunny than human", and had been part of a feral porn group in the Bay Area. She claimed that KhordKitty smeared peanut butter on his genitals to entice the family dog. Currently attempting to delete everything to "leave the fandom 5eva" as she intends to drag KhordKitty to court over parental custody. Deb dropped many logs of KhordKitty's activities on kiwifarms, namely the bookmarks of the snuff/gore sites he frequented, and had allegedly attempted to go to the police with the logs of Gabriel grooming the teenager in NYC when they were discovered. As of current, she has provided evidence supporting her claims that she left Nick early on in 2020 as well. Due to other events associated with the drama surrounding her ex-husband, she seemingly has decided to leave the fandom at large. Deb has also met Growly, seemingly through KhordKitty and, later, Nick.

Nick Retallack/Kalu is who Gabe's wife left him for, despite Deborah's claims that she and Nick are not together. Photos exist of him hanging out shirtless with Deb and Gabe's kids, and (as mentioned above) telegram chats exist confirming that she started dating Kalu immediately after leaving KhordKitty. Other chats surfaced where Kalu was accused of fucking a dog on possibly more than one occasion, and his FA is filled to the brim with feral and babyfur porn. Deb actually did ditch Nick and has been moving on with her life. For his part, KhordKitty has been bending over backwards in order to defend Nick to the public for some reason. Recently photographs surfaced that were taken by known pedophile Growly/TORA of Nick and KhordKitty, showing that they've met in person.

ShadoWolffess

William 'Bill' J. Clark also known as ShadoWolffess, MoonShadowLuna49, Beryl Emvixie, MoonLycan666, SpiritWolfskydemon49, Nickelback Wolf, werefox49, biltfoxxx44D, Xagnarrbgwlf, and Adurrah Wereverine is a bisexual furry artist, fursuiter, plushophile, zoophile, and pedophile that lives in Bloomington, Indiana, USA. He is commonly referred to as “Carpet Sample " by the furry community. His fursuit was made up of multiple stuffed animals that he had done horrendous things to, Shadowolffess had confessed this online. Because of that, many other furries could smell the stench that reeked from his fursuit. After other furries found out about how he made it, Shadowolfess was banned from practically all furry conventions. He also attempted to get into the art community, but never saw much success.

Even had a few other ppl making gross pedophilic jokes about it makin him uncomfortable, but this guy would talk to him about it along with his stories and everything else(cuz stopped talkin after 5) didn't turn him away cause we were too scared of what he might do."*

Noteworthy Incidents: EXOTIC EXPOSURE

Changed

Changed is a game made by a furry indie game developer known as Dragonsnow that is based on the “Transfur” Fetish in the Furry community, Transfur means a human turning into a furry creature. The game was made in 2018 and has had a lot of controversy over the past 6 years.

Puro and the art style mimicking latex creatures in the game are one of the infamous characters that are usually used as profile pictures/content by online predators and porn addicts besides the Boykisser avatar. Here are some examples:

Kaiju Paradise admins:
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iAPgYmR5Ea4&t=4s

Complaints and criticism of the game also come from the fact that this game isn’t rated 18+ on Steam despite the fact that it promotes sexual and fetish content. Parodies like Kaiju Paradise on Roblox are also facing the same issue both on the gaming platform and even on their official Discord server.

“Death” Animations

The Animations In the game when you are caught by an enemy, also known as Latex furries, have many sexual poses and references when you are caught. Such Animations mostly consist of the Latex Mounting itself onto the character (Known as Colin) and consuming your entire body until you are one, which has its similarities to the vore kink in the furry fandom. Such Images will not be shown. The images can easily be found online or on Steam where the game is published, usually not under an NSFW barrier. [LINK REDACTED]

Age of Colin

Colin is the main character in the game Changed, the age of Colin has been confirmed as around 15 years of age by the creator, Dragonsnow. Dragonsnow has also openly admitted to thinking the term “Shota” or "正太" in Japanese is not pedophilic. Shota is a slang term for “Shotacon” which is by definition “... A person who is attracted to fictional boys 16 or younger, or who is attracted to fictional boys who have the appearance of a character who is 16 or younger.” https://simple.wikipedia.org/wiki/Shotacon

Why are you guys so interested in whether the main character is an adult or not?
Does TF change anything because of "adults" and "minors"?
I'm saying this because I'm tired of the slander that Colin is a minor = I am a pedophile colin is an adult = he clearly looks like a minor, I'm a pedophile

In this screenshot Dragonsnow is attempting to show how Colin's age is nothing but slander, highlighting how he is in a lose-lose situation, no matter the outcome.

Ha ha pedophile.
But seriously, don't take that S-H-I-T close to heart at all. People throw accusations back and forth because the character either looks like a minor or is actually a minor. But that's just retarded, not only it's a non-existent person that basically lives in fantasies of people but also why even care about that? You can do anything as long as it doesn't harm others in any way. And i don't see how you doing whatever you want to your character is harming anybody.
Oh. And people just wanna know because curiosity.
thanks

Dragonsnow replying to a comment about how, because they are drawings, it's not pedophilia. However, it has been stated by the Criminal Department of The United States Department Of Justice that;

“Child pornography is defined as any visual depiction of sexually explicit conduct involving a minor (someone under 18 years of age). This includes photographs, videos, digital or computer-generated images indistinguishable from an actual minor, and images created, adapted, or modified, but appear to depict an identifiable, actual minor” https://www.justice.gov/criminal/criminal-ceos/citizens-guide-us-federal-law-child-pornography

Why do people like so much to find beautiful, innocent and funny things in AV, and like to find dirty and lewd content in normal works
According to steam's requirements, "the game contains such things as obvious violence, frequent nudity, pornographic content and other adult content" to be considered "adult games", changed does not have violent elements, the protagonist has been wearing pants well, so you are trying to say that the black wolf and snow leopard TF?
Geez, if I really wanted to make a NSFW game, why would I draw "just two" out of hundreds of TFs that don't even show their genitals, just their crotches with their asses attached? How else do you need me to draw TFs?
So what are you trying to say, that once the kids play my game they will become lewd? Do they really think of sex when they see these images? Really?
I will change the adult rating of the game, maybe in the next update, maybe today, are you satisfied?

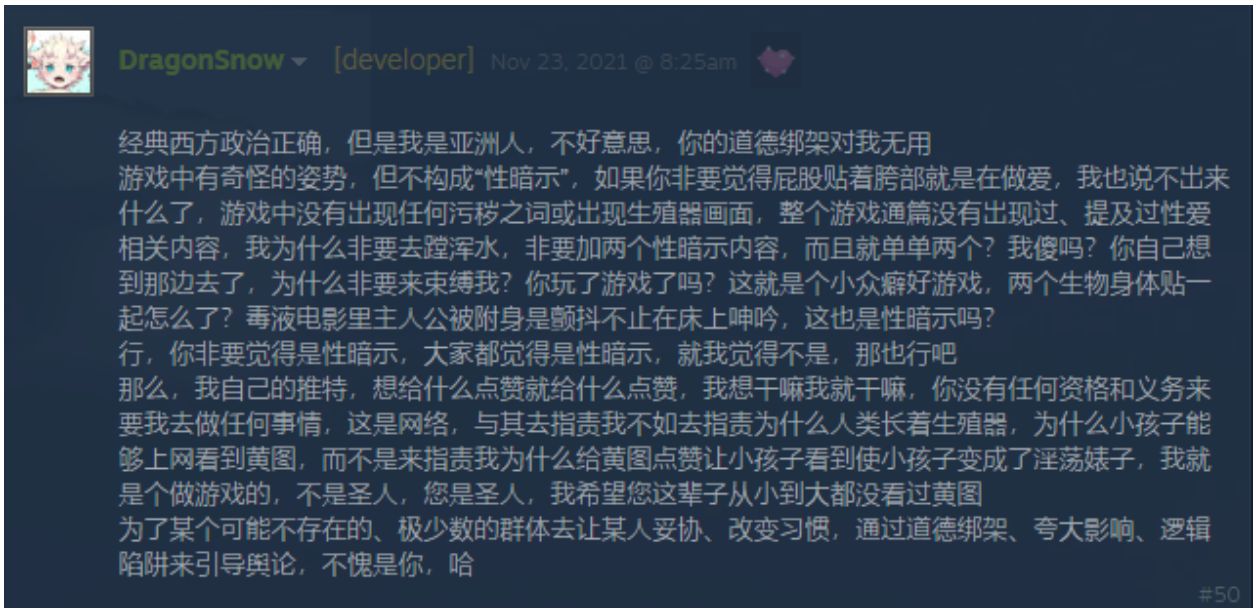
Dragonsnow attempting to defend how his game is not heavily NSFW, although characters in Changed, are commonly drawn with increased proportions for certain body sections, in soft-porn positions, and/or making sexual motions or gestures.



The message translates as follows:

“Classic Western political correctness, but I am Asian. Sorry, your moral kidnapping is of no use to me.”
Here he claims that local norms do not apply to him because he is from a different part of the Globe. However, since Steam is based out of Washington State, and all Steam users agree to Steam's TOS, this means that he is illegally distributing underage pornographic content underneath Washington State jurisdiction, which is in direct violation of USC 2251. This violation can result in a sentence of 5 to 10 years or $100,000 to $250,000 in fines.
https://store.steampowered.com/subscriber_agreement#1 https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Valve_Corporation
https://uscode.house.gov/view.xhtml?req=18.+U.S.C.+2251&f=treesort&num=18

“There are strange postures in the game, but they do not constitute "sexual suggestion". If you insist that the butt is touching the crotch, it is having sex, I can't say anything. There are no dirty words or pictures of genitals in the game. There is no sexual content mentioned or mentioned in the entire game. Why do I have to wade into muddy waters and add two sexually suggestive content, just two? Am I stupid? You wanted to go there by yourself, why do you have to come and restrain me? Have you played the game yet? This is a niche game. What’s wrong with two creatures’ bodies touching each other? In the Venom movie, the protagonist is trembling and moaning on the bed when he is possessed. Is this also a sexual suggestion? OK, you have to think it’s a sexual suggestion. Everyone thinks it’s a sexual suggestion. I don’t think it’s a sexual suggestion, so that’s fine too.”
He then argues how porn that is commonly labeled as “Soft Porn” is not considered porn at all.
https://www.collinsdictionary.com/dictionary/english/soft-porn

“Well, for my own Twitter, I can like whatever I want, and I will do whatever I want. You have no qualifications or obligations to ask me to do anything. This is the Internet, so instead of accusing me It's better to blame why humans have genitals and why children can see pornographic pictures on the Internet, instead of blaming me for giving likes to pornographic pictures for children to see and turning them into slutty bitches. I'm just a gamer. Yes, you are not a saint. You are a saint. I hope you have never seen pornographic pictures in your life.”
After this he compares himself to how humans are flawed, and how no one is perfect, this is seemingly written to try to dodge how he is ultimately adding to the pedophilic community scene as a whole.

To make someone compromise and change their habits for the sake of a very small group that may not exist, and to guide public opinion through moral kidnapping, exaggerated influence, and logical traps, you are worthy of it, haha.”
Lastly, he claims that he will not change due to the “Lack of community” that wants the pedophilic content to end.

Veil (Transfur Outbreak Owner)

Veil, also known as Typh, Furlatte, Ashley, Faeki, Narpy/Naprypaws, and many other names is the creator and owner of the Roblox game “Transfur Outbreak” based on the Steam game “Changed”. Veil for the past few years has been exposed for multiple actions, such as the following:

- Grooming minors and asking them for inappropriate photos
- Acting inappropriately in Roblox and a public discord server
- Adding inappropriate content into his own Roblox game
- Stealing assets from other Roblox games without permission
- Impersonating others online
- Inappropriate use of Roblox clothing and group names
- Treating his staff team with toxicity
- Commissioning NSFW art of minors' original characters

Grooming Minors

The earliest unconfirmed grooming Veil did was with a user known as Namar, who supposedly used to work with Veil when he used to work on condo(sex) games, more will be explained about this later in this document.
(Source needed)

The earliest confirmed groomed minor of Veil was on January 10th, 2021. The minor in the video is unknown but it was confirmed that they were 14 years of age while Veil was 16 years of age (being a minor himself at that time).
Archive depicting Veil in an NSFW conversation with the minor:

The 2nd confirmed grooming was of a person known as Ashucc, who was known as Veil's girlfriend sometime between 2021 and 2022. Ashucc being 17 years of age, Veil had commissioned a sex animation of their Roblox characters It was also rumored that nudes were traded between the 2, but this is unconfirmed. After Ashucc broke up with Veil, Ashucc deleted her Discord account.

The 3rd confirmed grooming victim's name will not be mentioned due to privacy and wanting to remain anonymous. Between September and October of 2021, a minor who was 15 at the time was groomed into sending nudes to Veil.
https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1PHpNdXkgcDhGDShsRc6UFR_LQuXsn9qM?usp=sharing

The 4th confirmed grooming victim's name will not be mentioned due to privacy and wanting to remain anonymous. On October 11th, 2021, Veil was trying to ERP (Erotic RolePlay) with the Minor who was 13 years of age at the time.
https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1c07HZjPLrSl_-TQtLG562tm1vfPGZorJ?usp=sharing

The 5th confirmed grooming was by another minor of unknown age. They had exchanged nudes and had ERP'd in a discord call. It is unknown what date this occurred, and we do not know who the victim was.
https://drive.google.com/file/d/1HlQx3PFoiJdr_LI63HSAiKP1YUWHRW4n/view?usp=sharing

The 6th confirmed grooming victim's name will not be mentioned due to privacy and wanting to remain anonymous. The dates are unknown of when the grooming all happened but what happened was explained in this video.
https://youtu.be/5F2ehjZYxR4?t=716

The 7th and most recent confirmed grooming happened in June of 2023 between Veil and a 15-year-old. Veil had sent NSFW furry images to the minor, groomed the minor into uploading inappropriate Roblox clothing, and talked inappropriately to the minor.

(Translates to: "MY DICK DOESN'T FIT IN THE BOTTLE. MINE IS TOO BIG") (Culona meaning big ass in Spanish)

Acting Inappropriately

On multiple occasions, Veil has acted very inappropriately in his public server, which he allows minors into. He asked for things such as dick pics and acting sexual in chat and has had inappropriate profile banners and profile pictures on his server. He had also allowed an NSFW channel on his server.
https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/19Y4R9vIhV1Y5wkysmtMPTos4UQPrqQ2n?usp=sharing

Veil had also said inappropriate things in front of minors in his own game.

Adding Inappropriate Content to Roblox

Before Veil started working on Transfur Outbreak, Veil had worked on Condo(sex) games on Roblox. He used an account called “Track_Veil " to work on such games, eventually, the account was terminated by Roblox. After he began working on Transfur Outbreak and in early development he added in sex scripts which he had from his experience.

Stealing Assets

Veil has stolen multiple Assets from other games on the Roblox Platform, from games such as Grand Piece Online, Criminality, and Parkour.

- The Admin Control Panel in Veils game was stolen from the Game Parkour.

Impersonating Others Online

For a certain amount of time, Veil had impersonated 2 people online, known as Typh and Squawq. Typh is a Furry animator on Youtube and Squawq is a furry artist on Twitter. Veil had impersonated both of them by trying to look like them both on Roblox and Discord.
https://drive.google.com/file/d/1B7jbwSLnP54VergnzBoTNfSE40SieruQ/view?usp=sharing

Inappropriate Use of Roblox Services

Veil has uploaded inappropriate clothing and group names to the Roblox platform. He has used an alt called “ANEXATOR” whose only favorite game was TO, and the only group the account was in was the TO group, and the only one who bought the account’s inappropriate shirts was Veil.

https://youtu.be/2BGA1hW4N9M?si=jrs49_n1Edl_9GPj

Veil had also named one of the groups he owned “621”, being a reference to the furry pornography website E621. After that, Veil changed the name of the group to “Femdoggies.” https://drive.google.com/file/d/15m8PemvWxuGKT4aH-jXOj_433tHgkqg8/view?usp=sharing

Treating Staff Team Unfairly

Prior staff and contributors to Veil's game have been treated unfairly by Veil. Veil had deducted pay from some of his admins and had demoted, kicked, and banned admins for questioning veils actions, such as breaking his own rules in his server and actions. One of the previous co-owners of the game, part stacker, Has this happened to him it is explained in the video below from timestamps 2:34 to 11:12.

Commissioning Nsfw Art of Minors OC

There have been 3 noted times Veil had commissioned NSFW of Minors Original characters. The first time was the sex animation between Veil and his past GF, Ashucc, which was listed in the grooming minors chapter. The 2nd time was of the 3rd groomed minor and was NSFW photos of their Roblox avatar, which the photos were listed in Google Drive. The final noted time was of an NSFW drawing he commissioned of a minor’s furry Original character.

The Condemnation of Kni_RBLX

Kni_RBLX, also known as Kni or “Kny guy”, is a Roblox developer who has been pandering to the Transfurmation and Monster Girl scene on a Roblox for years. He also neglects and sexually abuses his underage developers, has an unquenchable thirst for profit which commonly causes him to disregard the wellbeing of others, and has violated numerous copyright laws among a variety of media.

Violations Regarding UGC

Kni has committed various violations according to the Roblox TOS. He has uploaded unfathomable amounts of sexually explicit furry content for him and those who pander to his degenerate ways and has lied to his normal audience in numerous ways.

Inappropriate UGC Content

Kni has uploaded several UGC (User-Generated Content) revolving around the game Changed, or more specifically, its Special Edition release. which directly states on its Steam page that it is an 18+ game, hosting sexually explicit transfurmations throughout its game. Kni_RBLX is aware that the creator of Changed does not want his content on the platform. The following items are based on the aforementioned transfurmations. Most if not all were on sale for users to buy at one point, although most are no longer for sale or deleted entirely.

Misleading Information Regarding UGC Limiteds

Kni_RBLX has improperly credited the modeler of the UGC item “Apple Antlers” upon uploading this item, misleading people into thinking that they might have been the creator of the item with the comment they made in the description of the hat, “KNI was here Owo”. Many people suggest in the comments of the Apple Antlers that Kni_RBLX lied about how much stock the item was meant to have when it went limited.

Kni_RBLX had made two limited items, the Transmissions Helmet and the STARSET Trials Flag, to promote their STARSET Concert Experience. However, Kni_RBLX failed to express the extremely limited quantity of the item, making fans of STARSET very distraught, to the point where Kni_RBLX had to make a response to the fans.

Kni_RBLX created an item called the “KNI’s Furizon Gift”. Kni_RBLX underestimated how well this item would sell, especially considering how little thought was given to it. Kni_RBLX had promised his fans it would open on September 15th, but was ultimately delayed and placed back on sale to attempt to generate more Robux because he wished to make another UGC limited. The Furizon Gift has still not been opened to this day.

Violations Regarding Project Yuro

Project Yuro is Kni’s group that hosts all of his main games, including his transfurmation game and his now defunct Sonic the Hedgehog roleplay game. Along with the blatancy of transfurmation’s explicit content violating the TOS, he abused his staff, pocketed all of their promised robux, and even sexually harassed some of them, including sending furry pornography to a 13 year old whilst he was begging him to stop.

Abuse and Theft

When Kni_RBLX was confronted with someone saying that they would take their own life because of them, Kni_RBLX both supported and encouraged the action by saying it was ‘epic’.

Kni_RBLX stole assets from Sonic Speed Simulator for their game Sonic RP+ according to one of its main developers. Kni_RBLX later confirmed this themselves.

Kni_RBLX gives an exorbitant amount of Robux to themselves, easily over tens of thousands of Robux, whilst barely paying devs, even if they ask for Robux. Kni_RBLX is fully aware that devs need their compensation, yet chooses not to pay anyway. On most occasions, devs do not get paid upon asking for payment. Devs can see the amount of money they are (or aren't) getting paid.

Kni_RBLX created a 'Transfurmation' game titled "The Infection: Remastered", which is based on Changed. Despite the continued success of other projects, Kni_RBLX wishes to keep production of this game due to its monetary value. Kni_RBLX is aware that TIR is not suitable for kids, yet he advertises it directly to Project Yuro anyway.

Kni_RBLX gave themselves an estimated 140,000 robux from stipends from the Project Yuro group, but only granted others around 20-100 robux. The following links below are screenshots from the audit logs from the Project Yuro group, granted by a developer.

Kni_RBLX is extremely selective about who can work, even in their development team. This has caused some developers to become overly attached to the games, and feel afraid to speak out about mistreatment.
https://archive.org/details/image-13_20240529_0120

Kni_RBLX barely assists the developers in their work, valuing watching cartoons over helping the team. This negligence has reflected on his game The Infection Remastered

FlowingHorizons

Kni_RBLX, who is known to be a 17-year-old, has sexually harassed and sent NSFW content to 13-year-old “FlowingHorizons”, ex-developer of Project Yuro. In these screenshots, Kni_RBLX attempts to defend his actions and continues his behavior despite rebuttal from FlowingHorizons.

Kni_RBLX’s Inconsistencies

It is believed Kni_RBLX is a male based on a post from one of his old groups from 2020, despite this Kni_RBLX claims that evidence of himself saying he was male is invalid due to him having an alter-ego he calls “Kni-y”, who is male. If his claims of being 17 years old are correct, the proof of his stating he was male could have been made when he was 14-15 years old. It is speculated that Kni_RBLX should have been mature enough to not make objectively childish “gender-bend” personalities for himself by that age.

https://archive.org/details/image-24_20240529

Insatiable Greed

Kni_RBLX spends his robux on his UGC in order to get publicity, which causes his profits to be tremendously depleted. This is reflected by the delay of the Furizon gift. Additionally, Kni_RBLX often takes dares for Robux, sometimes based on sexual themes.

Kni_RBLX admits that he would continue making NSFW content if it meant he was getting paid.
https://archive.org/details/image-31_202405

Kni_RBLX wishes to show people who attempt to stop his actions that bringing light to them is “only fueling the flame”. This is likely a diversion tactic.

Kni_RBLX has attempted to defame BlaxorReborn, lead developer of Kaiju Paradise by terribly editing a screenshot of him claiming he supported predators.

Other Obscenities

Kni and some who follow him are avid fans of ABDL (a.k.a. "babyfurs"), an extremely gross fetish that reserves no right to have representation on the Roblox platform.
https://archive.org/details/image-5_20240529_0222

When Kni_RBLX was confronted to delete the Puro limited, Kni_RBLX obliged, but made an extremely snarky response. Kni_RBLX tweeted out plans of a white version of the Wolf Mask, which is the direct color of the mask used by one of the characters in Changed.
https://archive.org/details/image-10_20240528
https://archive.org/details/image-5_20240528

Kni_RBLX continues to defend the existence of his content and game because he believes that, since others have broken the rules, so can he. He also brings up the lenient restrictions for minors to bypass 18+ ratings if they so wish to.

https://archive.org/details/image-7_202405

Kni_RBLX misled users into believing that an official partnership with the game 'Changed' was planned via a Roblox group name "Project Yuro X Changed", but was later changed to "Project Yuro X TIR" due to unknown reasons.

Kni_RBLX's 'KNI's Cursed Pals' set was stolen from a modeler named "Ocublox" who uploaded these models to Sketchfab before Kni_RBLX stole them. Kni_RBLX attempted to cover this up. Kni_RBLX believes that all 13-year-olds will eventually watch pornography. This point of view was influenced by a Flamingo video where he played a Roblox game similar to Changed.

Tony The Tiger

On January 26, 2016, Tony the Tiger's Twitter account, operated by Kellogg's, began blocking users from the furry community who were sending inappropriate and sexually charged messages. This mass blocking led to the creation of the hashtag #TonyTigerGate, igniting a significant online discussion about brand management and the ethical considerations of online interactions.
https://knowyourmeme.com/memes/events/tonytigergate https://www.shortlist.com/news/furries-are-getting-all-sorts-of-weird-with-tony-the-tiger-on-twitter

Prologue

Tony the Tiger, is the mascot for Kellogg's Frosted Flakes, he debuted in 1952 and quickly became known for his enthusiastic catchphrase, "They're grrreat!" Created by Eugene Kolkey and designed by Martin Provensen, Tony was initially voiced by Thurl Ravenscroft, whose deep voice solidified the character's friendly character. Over the years, Tony's design evolved, and his family members were introduced to broaden his appeal. He has been associated with sports, fitness, and positive messaging in advertising campaigns.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tony_the_Tiger#History

Move onto Twitter

Kellogg launched the Tony the Tiger Twitter account on July 30th, 2013, but didn't post its first tweet until September 18th of that year which simply read "Hello Twitter." Until 2018, the account tweeted hundreds of messages in the character of Tony the Tiger, including many promotional posts about Kellogg's Frosted Flakes-brand cereal and enthusiastic statements about sports seasons.

The Incident

As early as in July 2014, just one year after the account was made, and only a few months after it began posting, furries began sending Tony sexual posts, replies, and tagging him in inappropriate situations, Kellogg’s of course tried their best to control the situation.

On November 4th, 2015, Gawker first picked up on the noticeable influx of furries tweeting sexual demands at Tony's account, several of which were highlighted in an article titled "Tony the Tiger Can't Tweet Without Furries Begging Him for Sex." The official tweet created alongside the article was also posted on the r/justneckbeardthings subreddit, where it managed to get over 300 upvotes in the following few months. The next day, several other news sites also ran similar articles focused on the tweets, including Bustle, Death And Taxes, and The Daily Dot.

In early January of 2016, pornographic drawings and materials of Tony became much more widespread on all platforms where they could be hosted, resulting in the Twitter account having to publicly announce; "I'm all for showing your stripes, feathers, etc. But let's keep things gr-r-reat – & family-friendly if you could." Of course, this statement had little to no effect on the movement the fandom had created around Tony.

On January 26th, 2016, Tony began blocking a substantial number of its followers considered to be furries, though little distinction was made between those who tweeted inappropriate messages at the account and others who simply identified themselves as part of the fandom. Furries and supporters of Tony subsequently shared their reactions to the blocking on the #TonyTigerGate hashtag.

Following the blocks by Tony, several furries started looking for a new Twitter account to follow. Initially, they went to the official Twitter account for Pizza Hut, after it coincidentally created a tweet featuring the word "knot", which also refers to a canine's penis and is used in the furry fandom as a slang term for an erection.

https://www.urbandictionary.com/define.php?term=Knot

One account became of particular interest to the fandom, Chester the Cheetah, Unlike Tony, Chester seemed to enjoy the compliments and the arrival of the fandom. Although Chester, similar to Tony, did not accept overly sexual comments too well. Ultimately Chester would never see nearly as much fame as Tony would.

After two years of trying to control the situation, Kellogg's finally gave up on trying to redeem Tony, and in Mid-July 2018, completely rebranded the account to "Frosted Flakes" (@frosted_flakes), where it continues to post to the present day.

Aftermath

The rebranding of the Tony the Tiger Twitter account to simply "Frosted Flakes" in 2018 significantly reduced the furry community's interest, leading Kellogg's to refocus on traditional brand marketing. However, in 2022, Tony the Tiger made a comeback on social media by launching a Twitch channel, although this would seemingly gain the same crowd as the Twitter account, but was on a scale much more manageable by Kellogg's.

BLFC Pizza

The BLFC Pizza incident was an event where Denver Colorado fursuiter Manedwolfy, also known as Unmamedwolfy and Johnwolf, or simply John, proposed to Twitter on September 22nd of 2021 for a "Cum Pizza Party" to be hosted at a hotel room during the Big Little Fur Convention. John would plan this out via a public tweet asking “Do you want to cum on my pizza party at BLFC?” Where he received a 67.8% majority on a subsequent poll. The plan would be carried out a month later, from October 19th to the 22nd of 2021. Later, they would leave the desecrated Papa John’s pizza in the hallway to trick someone into eating a slice, which was partially successful.

Prologue

Before the event, John made multiple tweets about the plan, with an October 15th tweet indicating that 86 participants planned to take part, and would publicly discuss everything about the party, with everything from how they would store the then thought 30 attendees, to what kind of pizza they would order. Even going as far as to make a semi-serious slideshow on why you should attend the party.

The fandom was quick to pick up on this strange upcoming event, with most shunning the actions, but a large crowd also praised the actions of John, and his actions to make the event "much more memorable" https://www.furaffinity.net/journal/10024391/

The Party

The party would officially begin on October 22nd, although there were reports of congregation earlier. At 6:18 PM, John tweeted about the party in action, claiming that "We're officially on 10 cummers" tagged with a censored photo of 4 furries desecrating the pizza. Ultimately concluding over 3 hours later at 9-10 PM, with John announcing in a Deleted tweet that they had "19 confirmed pizza cummers".

At 12:33 AM on October 23rd, John responded "ITS IN THE HALLWAY" after several unassociated furries had already encountered the pizza. In the following hours, multiple Twitter users expressed concerns over the pizza being placed in the hallway, writing that the action was gross, hazardous, and inconsiderate of hotel staff.

Backlash

At 12:28 PM, with only minutes of the pizza being placed in the hallway, after receiving immense backlash, and a warning of a permanent ban from future BLFC conventions, as well as other events, John made a public announcement on Twitter announcing that “The pizza was not left in the hallway, it was thrown away” and “I was the sole reason this party happened” As well as promising to make another slideshow addressing concerns. 3 hours later in the night, John finally posted a picture of the pizza being thrown away.

https://twitter.com/manedwolfy/status/1451824479751991300

Many were upset at the BLFC staff not only for allowing John to enter the convention despite the public posts but also for the lack of response, with one case of Sexual assault flying completely under the radar of the staff team in favor of dealing with the “Pizza Situation.” On top of this was one of the janitors for the convention publicly announcing his disgust for not only the situation but partially for the fandom as a whole, saying that “It wouldn't surprise me if some are also into making random unwilling people clean their cum” Another sarcastically thanked them for “once again proving this fandom is full of gross degenerates.”

Ultimately the fandom did not see the situation as a prompt for them to call out these people, or to improve the fandom with their removal, but instead to create several memes off the event.

Midwest Furfest Badge

In 2021 Midwest FurFest (MFF) created color-coded accessibility badges for neurodivergent (autistic) furries based on the Autistic Self Advocacy Network's Color Communication Badges system, to be used on their conventions. In November 2021, certain furries started to create versions of these cards, some in joke form, some NSFW in nature, with the intent of wearing them at MFF.
https://web.archive.org/web/20211109192103/https://twitter.com/SkippyCoyote/status/1458150505432158209

The content of some of the fake badges, especially the NSFW sexual ones, prompted some furries to post notices against such badges. In response, some took their creations down, some did so along with an apology.
https://twitter.com/EdBCollie/status/1457545675332329474
https://web.archive.org/web/20211109192103/https://twitter.com/SkippyCoyote/status/1458150505432158209

One of the exceptions was John, who used the "Cum Pizza Party" theme in one of the cards, with the intent to wear it at MFF. Again, it caused both controversy and congratulations among mostly online furs. While most cards were taken down with explanations, Manedwolfy posted a defensive retort to why his design would stay up online for other furs to share:
https://twitter.com/manedwolfy/status/1457760422530936838
https://twitter.com/manedwolfy/status/1457436415667621891

“You're all getting way too upset over memes about these badges. It's great that MFF is doing something like color badges for people with social anxiety, disabilities, and autism, I think that's awesome. However, they are NOT mutually exclusive to those people and they are available to ALL con attendees. This means anyone can wear them and anyone can use these badges or any other badge formats for their reason. You are not exclusive to these badges and getting upset over adults making different formats of them is not justified. They can be used by anyone and they can be made into anything, you use them for your own reason and others will use it for theirs. Saying anyone is attacking autistic or disabled people for making these "joke" badges ONLINE is grossly unfair and wrong.”

Formic Hivemind

Formic Hivemind (Richard J. Kretovic) is a furry fan from Greece, and New York, USA On April 15th, 2011, Kretovic was arrested and charged with a first-degree criminal sexual act and endangering the weltare of a child, after allegedly engaging in sexual activity with a boy under the age of thirteen. Kretovic had met the boy while chatting on Xbox Live, and after discovering that the boy Irved close by, arranged to meet him. Police say that Krelovie met the boy on more than one occasion, and it was during these meetings that the boy was sexually abused in Kretovie's basement.

Bako

Bako was a furry SCP: Secret Laboratory content creator on YouTube, who created content surrounding aspects of the Northwood Studios game before being accused of sexually talking to a minor and other things revolving around sexual conversations with minors, which caused him to delete his YouTube channel on March 11th, 2024.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yOdId2bSfqw

History

Bako started making Youtube content based around various games, put primarily around SCP: Secret Lab, a role playing game based around the Online Web-stories it is named after.

In 2024, Bako was exposed via screenshots depicting him hitting and attempting to ERP with a minor, as well as sharing pornographic content with minors.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=e9T7mVK9x7c

Pedophilia/Controversy

Leo, Bakos manager, had saved photo evidence of Bako grooming an 11-year-old that turned out to be a pedo bait, and they were actually 16 years old. Bako had also groomed, sexted, and asked for nudes of another scp sl player named “Tomato”, who had reached out to Leo and gave him that information.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=61CKlM2dq4w
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ATZ-iO2Zfb4

Leo also had evidence of Bako sending CP of himself to underaged people. The video evidence was sent anonymously to Leo, which showed Bako bouncing up and down on a sex toy. Bako says that he's 17 years old and he's “Able to do so”, however, In Kurdistan (his place of residency) it is illegal for 2 minors to do anything sexual. Leo also had photo evidence confirming that Bako had Sexual roleplay sessions with his staff.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WqydcgeHOuM

In Leo’s video, Bako had sent allegations to a 17-year-old calling him a pedophile for having sexual roleplay sessions with a 14-year-old with the discord profile of “Benry”. When Benry came forward saying that the 17-year-old was sexting with him, the 17-year-old stated that Benry had manipulated him. In screenshots, Benry was threatening to end their own life and talking about abuse and emotional manipulation.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WqydcgeHOuM

Bakos' former moderator, Muzneko, had gone to Bako asking him to make a response to Leo's videos about him. (TBD)

Bako as well was acting extremely racist in a video from Leo in the popular survival game "Unturned". The clip shows a person with the gamer tag of "Symfiz" working in a crop field while Bako was hitting him constantly shouting racial slurs and to get back to work. Ironically, this was heavily against the rules he enforced on his own Discord server.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1ANw3-KGPc8
https://drive.google.com/file/d/1SbNRh9s5ia6DMVR1IJMbG-ISokgb9jxh/view?usp=sharing Bako had stated that these were real but that at the time he was 14 years old. In the clip however, the one recording it was Leo, and Leo had stated that Bako at the time was actually 15. The clip was submitted to Northwood Studios, however, Northwood denied that this was him.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WqydcgeHOuM

Aftermath

Bako had released a statement on his community tab explaining everything that he was being accused of. This was quickly shot down however by Leo showing that all Bako had said was a lie. Then, on March 11th, 2024, Bako deleted his channel, videos, and all DM's with people he had spoken to. Bako had released a statement on his discord server that he was being falsely accused but that he couldn't respond at that moment as he was at the peak of his education. This was once again immediately shut down by Muzneko showing photo evidence of what he was doing, talking sexually to even more minors and trying to cover up his tracks, as well as Leo stating that he was still active and playing games.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=e9T7mVK9x7c
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WqydcgeHOuM

After this, Bako stepped down as the Owner of his discord server, giving it to one of his friends, "Tino". Tino had gotten into contact with Leo, stating the reason that he did not ban Bako was so the server would stay alive.. On March 20th, Northwood Studios addressed a situation on a steam event titled "The internet is not a safe place" which regards an undisclosed pedophile who was close to Northwood Studios. The person who made that post was Hubert, a friend of Leo, who had confirmed that the pedophile explained in the post was indeed, Bako.

The VC Incident

On July 2nd, 2024, Emu joined the discord server of Anti-Furry content creator Twitchmain5, crosshair, purpleguy and markus has entered a VC lasting for roughly one and a half hours trying to comfront emu's actions. A half minute later the moment markus was online he was just in silent watching the comfrontation worsens until emu tried to change the subject by convincing markus to talk and called him names like "pussy" etc. Twitchmain5 tell emu to shut up and let markus speak but emu refused to until a minute late he yelled an N word on all observers. As markus began to speak emu mentioned about his family talking at his background saying "thats a loving family you have" in a creepy tone, which cause markus to mentally paranoid about his family's safety. There are no evidence spat out during the comfrontation.

Because emu has been avoiding by making a fake laugh or saying "im curious" anytime.

The beefing

The incident was also connected to the VC incident the beefing has happened when emu accused halo of nuking a zoophile server even though hes recording the nuke happening and it someone else that had done the nuke.

As markus aka Nexarian30 (on youtube) active to reply emu's comments until an arguement had occured, causing the first round of the drama it only last 4 days during the beefing until emus gone quiet.

The second round occured by Nexarian30's warning to both crimson and emu how portion's capable off (hyperportions was banned for a reason when markus wasnt aware of the news) emu had attacked one of nexarian30's recent community post calling him a "gay blade" another arguement last 2 in a half days, when twitchmain stood up, he invited emu to the VC for comfrontation which is where markus entered the VC at the VC incident.

The third round is where nexarian30 had gone into mentally paranoia about his channel aswell. When nexarian30 warned a stranger that has been inflicted by emu, emu used this to make a misinformation making it look like nexarian30 sides with a man who makes fun of dead fetuses or dead people and ransom nexarian30 to apologise to emu or he'll sue or make things worse on him but nexarian30 had finally regained mental sanity back and prepared for the worst.

The pre-fourth round is just less worse, everytime nexarian30 stood up once to someone who got inflicted by emu, emu had gone mad and started attacking his twitter account (@darkragnarok30) aswell, it took just 2 days as two other users who have known to be anti furries has made emu change targets now emu has been a lesser target towards nexarian30.

Don't Hug Cacti

Don't Hug Cacti or DHC is a fursuit manufacturer led by Lucky Coyote (Kenneth C. Fenske) and her husband. The company continues to get complaints for having poor-quality and overall unsafe suits.

Testimonies

In 2020, Lucky Coyote came under scrutiny for allegations against her of emotional abuse and zoophilia. These were brought against her in the form of multiple statements made by various individuals in the form of a Google doc which contained the different testimonies from multiple individuals revealing that Lucky Wolf spent her time commonly sweet-talking minors, or young adults to visit her in a private real-life location, despite being married. As well as encouraging drama and feeling a sense of enjoyment starting it. Most of these young individuals would become stressed, gaining anxiety and paranoia in the process of this. She also seemingly has an addiction to taking any high-power psychic drug she can, usually LSD or weed, as well as commonly sharing, or attempting to share, these drugs with minors or young adults.

Her conversations online were commonly friendly but would usually result in sexual themes later down the line, even in conversations involving known minors.

Aubri Brow is also known for playing the victim card, whenever she is confronted for what she did, she will change her profile picture, talk about how miserable her life is, tell people that they are brainwashed and to bait more minors into her trap, as seen on her posts and comments on Discord, Youtube and Reddit.

Pedophilia

In as Far back as January of 2020 a girl named “Mariyah Burgos”, now known as “lucio the bean” on YouTube, was in contact with Aubri. The two would interact with each other mainly on discord and YouTube with Aubri making videos for Mariyah. They would commonly practice ERP, even in public spaces online.

Abri Brow once had a boyfriend, namely Belldandy/Loonagassy/GoddessBowser, who is more likely to be a manipulative person, groomer as well. She had harassed a minor on Youtube for exposing and slandering her boyfriend.

She is known to have tried to dox and threaten minors that she attempted to groom, a poor attempt to blackmail them into silence. Abusing the Copyright system in order to delete evidence against her is also not out of the question.

Nitrolord

Nitrolord is a furry Roblox youtuber with 152k subscribers as of 2/6/2025. He created his channel on March 17, 2016, and has been uploading Roblox related content for the past several years.
https://web.archive.org/web/20250207005013/https://socialblade.com/youtube/c/lord_nitrous

Background

As previously stated, Nitrolord created his YouTube account on March 17th, 2016, he would follow this up later the same year with his Roblox account, being made on September 18th, 2016. A few years after this, he would create his twitter account, in July 2019, under the username of “Ncrystal81” https://web.archive.org/web/20240615193958/https://x.com/NCrystal81

https://ia903204.us.archive.org/33/items/yt-1s.com-shining-some-light-on-the-lorebnuuy-situation-1080p/Opera%20Snapshot_2025-02-06_185636_www.youtube.com.png

His YouTube would remain largely inactive until 2020 as he instead focused on creating games within Roblox instead of videos for YouTube. None of these games would see much traction, instead focusing his skills onto earning commission through creating objects and buildings for others.
https://archive.org/details/yt-1s.com-how-nitrolord-ruined-his-career-720p-fhr/yt1s.com+-+-+How+Nitrolord+RUINED+His+Career_720pFHR.mp4

His first video was uploaded on October 23rd, 2021, “ROBLOX - The Less Body Parts, the Better? [Why We Love Korblox + Headless]” the video was on classic Roblox items, and would set the foundation for content on the channel moving forward, creating several videos on past Roblox events, rare items, and forgotten games.
https://archive.org/details/UCl7xS1HcIKfYJeQGGpaKj7g

From Mid-March 2023 to May 2023, Nitrolords videos would see a sudden explosion in popularity, gaining millions of views, and thousands of subscribers, cementing Nitrolord as a prominent figure in the YouTube Roblox space. After this, he would continue to promote his community, creating a patreon, and discord. This growth would continue until the summer of 2024, where the account began to slow in views and subscribers, likely due to the drama that began to circulate around the new Lorebnuuy account.
https://web.archive.org/web/20250207005013/https://socialblade.com/youtube/c/lord_nitrous

Lorebnuuy

In April 2024, Nitrolord created an alternate twitter account with the username of “LoreBnuuy” where he would link the account via his main account bio as well as creating a tweet about it on his main account as well as featuring it in the ending of his video “. Alongside this, he would also create a dedicated separate account on Roblox for Lorebnuuy.

“Hello, I have created a personal twitter @Lorebnuuy ! This NCrystal81 account mostly gets engagement off roblox stuff, I want a place to not post roblox stuff sometimes. Expect memes, life updates, and bad art. Follow if you want :)”

This account would however, not be focused on personal posts, instead being used to repost and share suggestive content, softcore porn, and generally media that is not sutable for the audience that it was originally promoted towards. After receiving immense backlash, Nitrolord would deactivate the account in August 2024, only 4 months after it was first created.

Following this, the moderation within Nitrolords Discord server “Nitrobloxia” rapidly began to shift tone, threatening to nuke the server, as well as creating two documents consolidating all the predatory actions that Nitrolord has been doing for the past several months. Nitrolord would respond by terminating his own discord server.

Shortly after LoreBnuuy was de-activated, another account titled “LoreTheBun” would be created, being self labeled as 18+, this account, while not being linked to Nitrolord directly, would later be confirmed to be another alt of Nitrolord.
https://archive.org/details/yt-1s.com-how-nitrolord-ruined-his-career-720p-fhr/yt1s.com+-+-+How+Nitrolord+RUINED+His+Career_720pFHR.mp4

On September 11th, 2024, Ruben Sim alongside others would publicly call out Nitrolord for the Lorebnuuy situation, forcing Nitrolord into making an apology tweet, where he would state that his intentions were simply that he wanted to support furry artists, and that his alt was not an issue since he believed only adults, irl friends, and those from the fandom would follow it. He would however fail to mention how he was actively interacting with minors, or that the account was linked to a Roblox profile.

Following all this drama, Nitrolord would post a video on September 30th, 2024 on his backup channel, “Nitwolord”, describing the situation regarding the second account, called “Shining Some Light on the Lorebnuuy Situation” Where he would describe how the account was indeed, an excuse to better interact with the furry fandom, and its members. He would also use this video to try to disprove or downplay several posts that highlighted Nitrolord showing or promoting pedophilic and zoophilic behaviors. Although would leave out critical details, such as following minors as well as the nsfw tweets he also showed on his main account as well.

The Party

On October 6th, 2024, one week after his video addressing Lorebnuuy, Nitrolord, on his new alt “LoreTheBun” alongside his girlfriend “SillyCowThing” would make a post promoting a “All ages dance party” outside of the upcoming FurPoc 2024, which welcomed kink gear to be worn. Public outcry was swift, Nitrolord had only recently addressed the allegations going against him, and this only worsened his already shattered reputation. Sillycowthing was found to also have a NSFW account similar to Nitrolord.

This would be reposted on the new LoreTheBun account, as well as the new LoreTheBun account, and would continually see traction all the way to its actual planned date of November 1st 2024, oddly there are no videos, photos, or online mentions, but Nitrolord does confirm the party did happen whilst going over a second Document listing the events of Nitrolord interacting with minors, and the Party itself.

After this, another document began to circulate, titled simply “Nitrolord” which covered in full Nitrolords actions with the Lorebnuuy account, the party, and the multitude of broken promises that Nitrolord had failed to accomplish. Nitrolord would respond by uploading a video titled “They Made Another Document About Me [Uncut First-Time Reaction]” where he would spend over 30 minutes attempting to debunk the claims listed in the document, but largely was unsuccessful, further worsening his already poor reputation.

After immense backlash, Nitrolord would make continued apologies on his twitter account, but would still manage to dodge mainstream attention. He would create another video on 2024-12-21 further addressing the allegations and connection to the fandom with the video titled “Why Is Nitrolord a Furry Now?” Where he would explain in the past months the shift in tone, change of avatar, and overall connotations of his actions, he would also create a community post that housed a document with further apologies and deflection, although this would be quickly deleted.

That was until the video titled “Nitrolord - Roblox's All Ages Furry Freak Party Host” was published on Jan 19, 2025 by greenlegocats123, a large Roblox YouTuber who wished to do a colab, but saw through Nitrolord, and wished to bring all his actions into mainstream, which he did. Nitrolord was quick to respond, posting a video on Jan 20, 2025 titled “I Failed at my Job” where he addresses his shortcomings, failures, and lack of overall discipline.

But the drama would continue to flow in, with dozens of channels jumping onto the action, as more and more evidence was compiled and stockpiled against him, despite this, his channel would see minimal actual consequence, with his subscriber count remaining stable.

LilPupcake

Prior to all other events, Nitrolord had made an account called “lilpupcake” with its first mention being on Feb 19th 2023, where he promoted and shared diaper fetish content, and even requested commisions. This account would largely remain in secret, disconnected completely from the Nitrolord name.
https://archive.org/details/lilpupcake-search-x

Following on the Discord Drama, a YouTuber named Jax decided to interview Nitrolord on discord for a video going over the fandom, afterwards, a conversation between him and an anonymous friend, would lead them to further research into Nitrolords online socials, particularly his Twitter and partner on it, SillyCowThing, where a Instagram account called “_v3_nom” would be found, that would link back to a NSFW twitter account called “_mamamilk”, which was confirmed to be SillyCowThing from a tweet that had the same fursuit that SillyCowThing owns and commonly uses. The account would be linked to another account within its bio; “Madly in love with my pup @lilpupcake” https://archive.org/details/yt-1s.com-the-roblox-youtuber-that-called-me-out-then-got-exposed-nitrolord-1080p-fhr/yt1s.com+-+Roblox+YouTuber+Nitrolord+is+a+Babyfur+PeeScat+Fetishist+READ+DESC_1080pFHR.mp4

People were fast to put two and two together, connecting that if Nitrolord was Sillycowthing’s partner, and “lilpupcake” was mamamilk’s partner, Nitrolord is lilpupcake, a sentiment further initially cemented by matching age of both accounts self-proclaiming themselves to be 20 years of age. The account was posting and reposting age-play, diaper fetishes, cub art, and feral porn.

Following this, NitroLord was confronted on discord, initially claiming “I dont like kids I promise” where he was also confronted by Jax in a second, unrecorded call, to be better and to stop creating content until he can see himself better. Unfortunately, this would not be the case, with the new drama arising about Nitrolord from greenlegocats video, Jax after 3 months of holding off, released the video on Jan 25, 2025, titled; “Roblox YouTuber Nitrolord is a Babyfur Pee/Scat Fetishist [READ DESC]” Despite this, Jax still promoted that harassment was wrong, and Nitrolord should recieve the help he needs.

After the video was released, Ruben Sim and Greenlegocats were quick to address the new situation, leading into a discord between them, two others, and Nitrolord, where he would initially deny that he was into diaperfur content, stating it to be pedophilic in nature. Shortly after this, Ruben directly addressed lilpupcake to Nitrolord, forcing Nitrolord to reveal that lilpupcake was indeed him, disproving his previous stance. The interview would be made public via Twitter from a post by @realschlep, which would instantly catch traction on the same day, being integrated into several Youtube videos.

Shortly after this, he would delete all of his twitter presence, including his main account Ncrystal81, his alt LoreTheBun, and the newfound Lilpupcake. But the damage had already been done, Nitrolords subscribers plummeted, as well as privating his “Why Is Nitrolord a Furry Now?” video, losing him 1.8 million views in the process.

Aftermath

On January 29th, 2025, a new rumor began circulating of Nitrolord having sold his Roblox account, as it had completely changed its appearance as well as name to “lighting_cobra21” Selling accounts after major drama is not uncommon, as Roblox accounts, especially those linked to popular YouTubers, will sell for thousands of dollars. However this would be disproved by a community post from Nitrolord themselves simply stating “I haven't sold my Roblox account and I will not be doing so in the future”

Following this, drama surrounding Nitrolord would continue, with Parlos video, posted on Feb 2, 2025 titled “Roblox Furry YouTuber NitroLord EXPOSED…” as well as Striders video “the Roblox Youtuber that called me out then got EXPOSED... On Febuary 3rd, 2025, Nitrolord would officially make a post that he would be stepping away from social media, stating;

>
> I'm going to be taking at least until May (the end of my college semester) of this year off from posting content to YouTube. This is to give myself an Internet break, time to work on myself, and the ability to focus on school. After that, any future uploads will likely be more sporadic than they were before. Again, I want to focus more on school, and I also want to try uploading different types and genres of content on another channel. But I don't plan on fully abandoning this channel. I do still have that hour long vid halfway edited, for example, as well as a lot more of Tallia's Crew to get to. No promises on when you'll see any of that, but I do intend for it to happen eventually.”

Nazi Furries

It has been known for years that furries have an internal Nazi issue within their community. These Nazi furries commonly refer to themselves as Furry Raiders, who were created in 2007 on a roleplaying game named Second Life.
https://furryraiders.org/pages/about-us
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hYZ_D493KJ8

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NQDa5Q4Ccac
https://en.wikifur.com/wiki/Furzi

The group's logo, a black paw print in a white circle on a solid-color background that is default red, was created in 2010 by Foxler himself and often worn in real life by its members as an armband, or drawn on their OCs/fursonas/characters as part of their ensemble, has been criticized as resembling the iconic WWII German Nazi brassard. The original design was based on Furzi's late 2000s Second Life armband logo.
https://inkbunny.net/starfoxACEFOX

They claim to be "...committed to upholding the values of free expression within the furry community by providing an open and welcoming organization free of exclusion and prejudice based on race, sex, creed, gender, identity, sexual orientation or political affiliation." Despite having a history showing them constantly and consistently spreading hate to minority groups, as well as showing extreme political hatred to any political party besides their own.

Their primary symbol is commonly associated with nazi/fascist topics and traditions within the furry community, despite this, it remains one of the primary symbols of the Furry Raiders.
https://furryraiders.org/blogs/news/raiders-retrospective-2020

There are various chat logs from Furry Raider groups that center around Nazi ideologies.
https://en.wikifur.com/wiki/File:NNImagery.JPG

Jonathan Huges/Artie Whitefox/Kobidobidog - Furry Raiders and Telegram Zoosadist(?) - A complete nutjob of a neo-Nazi lolcow who thinks that Muslims should die for the betterment of humanity or something. Is constantly quoting bible verses in support of pedophilia and bestiality and has gone so far as to say that pedophiles are akin to Jesus because people hate them also. Came out of the woodwork to defend Kero and Foxler when the Telegram was leaked.

CrusaderCat - Furry Raiders/Xanadu Crew - Known catfucker. Joined the Nazifur under Foxler if I recall until he made them even more embarrassing than before, somehow.
(Sources Needed)

Nazis still accepted(?)

Despite the Furry Raiders being commonly shunned in the community for previously promoting hate speech, fascism, and neo nazi concepts, they still have managed to accumulate thousands of online followers, and commonly set up booths at conventions, despite being previously kicked out of various conventions and banned from multiple websites for their ideologies and practices.

Foxler

The leader of the Furry Raiders, known as Foxler (Furry Hitler) has admitted to Sexual Engagement with minors and zoophilia. Members of the Furry Raiders commonly wear red armbands with their logo, consisting of a paw in a white circle, bearing a striking resemblance to the armbands worn by the Nazi Party. Despite all these previous incidents, Foxler still serves as the primary overseer of the Furry Raiders.

Foxler, whose real name is Lee Allen Miller, born July 21, 1987, is a founder and CEO of the furry social political group, Furry Raiders, headquartered in Colorado that initially began on Second Life. He later joined a Neo-Nazi group and slowly became the head of one of these groups.

Association with Nazism

Foxler has been criticized for tagging a Fur Affinity submission of his character's reference sheet as "Nazi" and "Furzi" and referring to himself as such, performing a Nazi salute in a fursuit for a photograph, using a modified version of the Nazi Imperial War Flag with the swastika replaced with a paw and the Iron Cross replaced with a fox head design, paying money to join a Neo-Nazi group, stating that "he hates black people" and would rally for the Ku Klux Klan, saying "I stand with Hitler", and referring to himself as "Foxler the Hitler of Furry Fandom", in addition to associating himself with the "alt-right", a term popularized by white supremacist Richard B. Spencer.

Though Foxler is of mixed-Thai ancestry, this behavior has been criticized as "aping the forms, fashions, conduct, and politics of the Nazis".

Child Grooming

In 2005, Foxler posted a LiveJournal entry admitting to knowingly engaging in cybersex with a 13-year-old girl when he was 18.
https://starfoxacefox.livejournal.com/9871.html

In 2011, 24-year-old Foxler was accused of attempting to convince a 16-year-old girl to run away from her parents, plying her by sending her money and a puppy.
(Source needed)

Foxler has commented that "dressing up as a cute fox" allows him to "trap" people and get their guard down, "even children".
(Source needed)

Foxler is also known for commonly inviting or having parties with furries who have had incidents with pedophilia in the past.

Bestiality

Foxler has been accused of committing bestiality and has admitted to having sexual contact with a dog as a teenager.
https://starfoxacefox.livejournal.com/9871.html

In addition to admitting to wanting to have sex with dogs, he has claimed that his dogs are "sexual beings", and has described French kissing a puppy. He had an account on Beast Forum, since banned. As recently as mid-2016 activity, his F-List profile listed Zoophilia as a "favorite" interest.

The Buffalo Shooter

On May 24th, a mass shooting occurred in Buffalo, New York, United States, at a Tops Friendly Markets supermarket in the East Side neighborhood. At around 2:30 p.m. EDT (UTC−04:00), 18-year-old Payton S. Gendron arrived at the Tops supermarket on Jefferson Avenue, a predominantly Black neighborhood in Buffalo, New York. He was armed with a Bushmaster XM-15, an AR-15 style rifle, illegally modified to accept 30 round magazines.

https://www.cnn.com/us/live-news/buffalo-supermarket-mass-shooting/index.html

Connection to the Fandom

Before the shooting, it was documented in Payton's Discord server "Plate Land", that between August 2020 and January 2021, he posted at least 83 messages, sharing photos of ammunition and discussing body armor and firearms, Several of the server members we're furries, however due to Discord's commitment to privacy and anonymity, none of the users involved within the server we're caught or faced consequences for possible assistance in the massacre, although all messages from Paytons account were logged.

https://archive.org/details/jimboboiiidiscord/post-april-29/

At exactly 3:47 in the live stream, before the shooting took place, you can see furry porn of the popular kid's show “Martha Speaks” on the shooter’s mobile device, this most likely comes directly from within the “Plate Land” server.

Nazi / Extremist ideologies

Before the mass shooting, the shooter made a Manifesto, which included many fascist and racist ideologies. At the beginning of the Manifesto, there is an image containing a symbol resembling the Black Sun. The shooter also answered questions on his Manifesto based on his extreme ideologies. “Are you an anti-semite?” is a question that he put in his Manifesto. His response was, “YES!! I wish all JEWS to HELL! Go back to hell where you came from DEMON! But in reality, a Jew confined to Judea where he can’t spread his people or beliefs is of no concern to me. It’s important to note that with proper connection to the internet, that is impossible.”

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Black_Sun_(symbol)

The Attack

Armed with an AR-15 style rifle, and numerous 30-round ammunition magazines, he also possessed a Savage Arms Axis XP hunting rifle and a Mossberg 500 shotgun. He was wearing body armor, a military grade helmet, and a head-mounted camera, through which he live-streamed the attack on the online service Twitch, the stream only lasted roughly 2 minutes before being terminated, however, the stream was also being broadcast to a private Discord server, where it continued for several minutes. As he approached the scene, he was recorded on his livestream saying "Just got to go for it".
https://www.yahoo.com/news/kind-gun-used-buffalo-shooting-221253004.html
https://archive.org/details/mass-shooting-buffalo-supermarket

After this, he proceeded to exit his vehicle with the modified XM-15 rifle and began firing at several individuals located outside of the store, after this he fired several rounds through the front window and entered the store, proceeding to gun down several other individuals before stumbling across a white cashier hiding within a booth, resulting in Payton apologizing to the man, and moving on to the rest of the store, although at this point in the shooting, it's mostly empty.

Arrest

On May 14th, 2022, the shooter was taken into police custody. Erie County Sheriff John Garcia said the shooting was a "Straight-up racially motivated hate crime from somebody outside of our community" The FBI was also onboarded in investigating the crime due to it being labeled a "hate crime" based on the shooter's online history and written word.

Aftermath

The day after the shooting on May 15th, 2022, a vigil was held by dozens of residents at the supermarket. Additionally, Buffalo Mayor Byron Brown was interviewed by NBC News on May 15th, where he called for new gun control action. The video received roughly 132,100 views over one day.

RELIGION

Religion is commonly not discussed in the furry community, but it still proves to be a massive issue due to commonly having to keep their status as a furry under wraps due to their respective religion.

If anyone argues against you with the Bible, just quote:

Proverbs 26:4-5 (NIV):
Do not answer a fool according to his folly, or you will be just like him.
Answer a fool according to his folly, or he will be wise in his own eyes.

This states that arguing against a Christian using the bible is about as effective as arguing against a fool using his folly.

Christianity

“The Bible doesn't say anything about being a furry!”

The Bible does not explicitly mention or address the concept of being a "furry" as it is a modern idea. Therefore, there are no specific Bible verses that directly mention, and as such, condemn being furry; since the Bible’s newest book was made in 95 A.D and the latest addition was in the 4th century, over 1500 years ago.
https://www.history.com/topics/religion/bible#
https://news.harvard.edu/gazette/story/2009/12/revelations-on-revelation/#:~:text=Revelation%2C%20the%20final%20book%20inLuther%20to%20author%20D.H.%20Lawrence.

However, going back to our stance of “If furries aren’t zoophiles, then why is all their NSFW art based on animals?” it can easily be quoted through the interpretation of the following verses, that being a furry is a sin in God’s eyes.

Leviticus 18:23 (NIV): "Do not have sexual relations with an animal and defile yourself with it. A woman must not present herself to an animal to have sexual relations with it; that is a perversion."

Leviticus 20:15-16 (NIV): "If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he is to be put to death, and you must kill the animal. If a woman approaches an animal to have sexual relations with it, kill both the woman and the animal. They are to be put to death; their blood will be on their heads."

Exodus 22:19 (NIV)
“Anyone who has sexual relations with an animal is to be put to death.”

Deuteronomy 27:21(NIV)
“Cursed is anyone who has sexual relations with any animal.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

An Insult to God?

Genesis 1:27 (NIV):
“So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them."

This verse highlights that humans were uniquely created in the image of God. It's often interpreted as emphasizing the intrinsic value and dignity of humanity due to being created in God's likeness.

While the Bible doesn't explicitly address the act of trying to become something other than human as an insult to God, this verse emphasizes the special nature of humanity as created by God, and how it should not be altered or changed in any significant way.

Luke 8:13 (NIV):
"Those on the rocky ground are the ones who receive the word with joy when they hear it, but they have no root. They believe for a while, but at the time of testing, they fall away."

For reviewing what the verse is saying, it’s simply pointing out false believers or those who need to understand how one could hear the Bible’s or a prophet's words but are not stable nor in full faith, but simply blinded by the benefits. This aligns with the Christan Furries defending their faith in God when they do not acknowledge the problems they live with or their ignorance, for example, the amount of exotic content. Such as the number speaking badly of their parents if they do not support or understand their habits, yet Christian Furries do not address it nor have any public speaking regarding it.

Islam

Islam is a religion that has risen in popularity ever since its proper introduction in the Middle East in 610 C.E. It has rooted similarity to Judaism and Christianity as it has similar Abraham roots.
The key point whether it’s a sin or not for furries to be outlawed in Allah’s (God) eyes, is to look at the text.

Quran 7:31:
"O children of Adam! Take your adornment at every masjid (place of worship) and eat and drink, but be not excessive. Indeed, He likes not those who commit excess."

The following Verse from the Quran goes over a warning and a command to the followers and the readers that individuals must maintain modesty, and although it may sound like only in the masjid, it applies to every aspect of an individual life. This applies to furries especially those who wear clothing or costumes or suits beyond covering their bodies and parts may be deemed excessive and unholy by Allah’s eyes due to not being modest but rather more focused on adornment likewise looking like fools or anyway focused to be looking at extravagance rather than being humble.

An Insult to God?

Mataalib Ooli'l-Nuha (1/353):
It is haram (impermissible) for both males and females to wear anything on which there is an image of an animal, because of the hadeeth of Abu Talhah who said: I heard the Messenger of Allah (blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) say: "The angels do not enter a house in which there is an image or a dog." (Agreed upon)

Shaykh Ibn 'Uthaymeen (may Allah have mercy on him) was asked about the ruling on wearing clothes on which there is an image of an animal or human. He replied: It is not permissible for a person to wear a garment on which there is an image of an animal or a human. It is also not permissible for him to wear a headcover or the like on which there is an image of a human or an animal because it is proven that the Prophet (blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: "The angels do not enter a house in which there is an image."

Verses:

HYPOCRISY

One quote furries will commonly use is "A few bad apples" to describe their fandom as not being mostly bad, however, this quote is shortened from its original message, which is "A few bad apples spoil the (whole) bunch" https://idioms.thefreedictionary.com/one+bad+apple+spoils+the+bunch

Are furries the same as cosplayers?

Q: Why make fun of furries for doing the same thing that cosplayers are doing?

A: Furries and cosplayers are not the same. The Oxford definition for a cosplayer is “the practice of dressing up as a character from a film, book, or video game.”
https://www.oed.com/search/dictionary/?scope=Entries&q=cosplayer

The definition of a furry is “A(n) enthusiast for animal characters with human characteristics, in particular, a person who dresses up in costume as such a character or uses one as an avatar online.” As you can see the only similarity is that they both dress up and the main difference is that cosplayers dress up as people from films, books, etc. While furries dress up as animals.
https://www.oed.com/search/dictionary/?scope=Entries&q=furry

“All Anti-furries will become/are furries.”

This statement stems from the same generalization of “All Furries will become/are zoophiles.” It is simply a stereotypical statement with no merit or ground to back itself up on, and as such, should be disregarded from arguments or conversations.

Furries are smarter than everyone else

According to the US Census Bureau, in 2018 4.5% of Americans had a Doctorate comparing this with the average PhD per Doctrine provided by the National Science Foundation, out of 55283 Doctorates, 98.3% were PhDs, resulting in a percentage of roughly 4.42% Of all Americans having PhDs, compared to the 1.85% of furries who have PhDs according to The Furry Sociological Survey and David Rust's paper on the fandom.

Comparing these two percentages results in the fandom having a lower-than-average PhD level than the American populace on average.

“Furries are the nicest community”

“Anti-Furries are such toxic and hateful people!”

In Wisconsin, a 14-year-old Old dies to Police after going to a School Campus with a Pellet gun, this child has expressed severe suicidal tendencies. The same child was following a YouTuber/Twitter user by the name of “Ruben Sim”. Ruben Sim mostly exposes the bad parts of a popular kids' website named “Roblox”. After furries on Twitter found out that the child had unfortunately passed, Twitter users began making fun and mocking the dead child.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mBtPnTKyw1A
https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-13373153/Wisconsin-school-shooting-suspect-teen-investigation.html

“I’ve never seen any bad furries before”

Many furries across the internet fail to realize that just because they are a part of the furry community doesn’t mean they know more about the fandom than anti-furries. For a comparison, here is an example: “A man lives on a beach on the side of the ocean for two years, but he cannot go in the water. During this time, a man visits the ocean to study it for 6 months. However, this man can go in the water and explore. After both are finished, they are brought together to see who knows more about the ocean. Who knows more?” To simplify, just because a furry has met a total of around 1000 furries who were all innocent doesn’t mean anti-furries have studied hundreds of thousands from around the internet and got different answers.

“These sources are all very biased”

If anyone would like to know how the staff team of The Anti-Furry Docs got all their sources, it comes in multiple ways.

The staff team usually just searches online via their respective browsers and then takes out all the untrustworthy ones (Such as random Reddit posts with no sources) and uses the rest. However, AI has played a role in finding more hidden sources for us as well.

Of course, there are also manually building sources, such as gathering evidence like screenshots, and videos, or conducting manual surveys, such as on Nazism in the Anti-Furry community.

Another way we get sources is through Tips or suggestions by either contributors or those wishing to stay anonymous, these sources are of course checked before being implemented into the Doc.

"From the bizarre to the immature, this subreddit is dedicated to showcasing some of the strange things anti-furries say. DM to have any posts featuring you removed."

- r/AntiFursInAction's Subreddit Description

r/AntiFursInAction was a “Anti-Anti Furry” subreddit that had over 1.5k members before its termination in July 11th, 2024 due to violating Reddit’s TOS of duplicating Sub-reddits. It had an extensive history of breaking its own rules, with members participating in raids, harassment and sexualizing minors.

They’d commonly try to compare themselves as being above anti-furries, being overly dramatic, or simply looping on themselves to fit the argument at hand. One of the most common is the “Discrimination” tab, where they label it discriminatory for Anti-furries to be targeting furries, stating that furries are a community, and as such, are protected by law against discrimination, however, they will also state that furries are nothing more than a hobby, contradicting themselves.

RULES

These are some rules they had, which were commonly broken in the subreddit, examples are shown below.

- 1
  “Censor private info (Addresses, real names, etc.) This is to prevent harassment of anyone involved, so please censor any private info.”

  The subreddit commonly failed to censor information and hide usernames.

- 2
  “Be civil. This community is an open and (mostly) accepting community, so this means no hatespeech, incitement of violence, or general incivility.”

  The subreddit commonly practiced incivility, stooping down to the lows of the people they are “criticizing.”

- 3

“No NSFW, yes that includes gore. No 18+ content or people being turned into red paste.”

The subreddit commonly failed to prevent suggestive images or themes on its posts.

- 4
  “Don't steal other posts. Please get your own posts.”

  Seemingly the only rule they would actually enforce.

- 5
  “Attention Anti-Furs If you are reading this, then that means you have read all the rules or skipped to this one. I just want to say, we are in no way inciting hatred, we are criticizing Anti-Fur behaviour while having a laugh. Please remain civil.”

  They would commonly throw insults, promote Anti-Furry hatred, and generally bash down on opinions, the most notable example of this is Hyperprotions.

- 6
  “No brigading. We're not Anti-Furries, so we won't act like anti-furries. Brigading can get this sub banned.”

  The subreddit has failed in the past to prevent raids against Anti-Furry subreddits and youtube channels.

- 7
  “Keep flairs relevant to the nature of the post. Memes go with the meme flair, Stalin's strongest soldier is used for those rare occasions where an AF is in fact a tankie rather than a wehraboo.”

  This is referring to neo-nazis inside the Anti-furry community, which the subreddit commonly cherry-picks out of the crowd, yet the subreddit commonly acts negatively to Anti-furries cherry-picking zoophiles in the furry community.

- 8
  “We do not condone or support animal abuse or child abuse. And we're tired of people pretending that we do. This kinda goes into the "No NSFW" category but still, if you come onto this subreddit with the sole purpose of telling us Zoophilia and Pedophilia is bad then you're preaching to the choir and you're wasting your time. If you do see any content which you think promotes abuse of children and animals then please report it to sub mods and Reddit staff with sufficient evidence.”

The only rule they seemed to actually enforce.

“Although they don't know it, anti-furries are often more cringe than furries themselves, whether being either 12 year olds talking smack about us on a schoolyard, or 30 and posting about it on reddit, it's always a hilarious sight to behold.” - r/AntiFurryCringe’s Subreddit description

After r/antifursinaction, r/AntiFurryCringe largely took their place, as a spiritual successor, being older than r/antifursinaction. Although it largely carried over the same sentiment of stereotyping, targeting and promoting false information on anti-furries, it would see a large improvement in moderation compared to r/antifursinaction.

Contributions

Furries commonly bring up that they contribute heavily in terms of donations and contributions to society, although most of these are heavily exaggerated, or simply false entirely.

Moderna Vaccine

“But a furry helped make the COVID Vaccine!” - refers to Chise.
(EDITOR'S NOTE: This name is not the scientist’s actual name, but instead an online alias)

Chise is a senior scientist for the Moderna vaccine, who helped in the development of the Moderna Covid vaccine, she has stated her disdain for taking all the credit amongst her team, yet, doesn’t seem to reinforce the credit among the possibly thousands of brilliant individuals who worked alongside her.
https://x.com/sailorrooscout/status/1746567181272289611?s=20

Chise’s involvement with the creation and even association with Moderna is few and far between, with all sources leading to a Singular YouTube interview, or her Twitter page.

One furry, out of hundreds of scientists. Chise barely made any difference.

Service Members

A survey conducted by the Joint Advertising Marketing Research & Studies (JAMRS) program found that only 2% of young people replied “Definitely” when asked if they would be serving in the military in the next few years, combined with the already relatively low population of furries compared to the American population leaves little room for possible military furries.
https://usafacts.org/articles/military-recruitment-is-down/

It should also be noted that most “Military Furries” are missing important identification in their descriptions, such as MOS (Mission Objective Statement) Rank, and even in some cases service branches entirely.

Donations

Furries had 2.1 million members according to a 2019 survey, the American population in 2020 was 331,449,281.

The American Population raised $471,440,000,000 in 2020 alone, dividing the donation by the total census count of 2020 results in every American donating $1422.36 in 2020 on average. However, the individual count is stated as $324,100,000,000 which is $977.83 per person. http://givingusa.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/06/GUSA2021_Infographic_Digital.pdf

Furries starting from 1997, in total with all recorded official donations via conventions, have achieved $4,877,362.51. Adjusted per year for inflation corresponding to 2020, this comes out to $5,272,516.63

Taking the estimated community size of 2,100,000 divided by the total donation size of $4,877,362.51 results on average every furry donating $2.32 ($2.51 Adjusted)

Calculating the difference of $977.83 per American compared to $2.51 per Furry, results in a statistic of every American donating roughly 338 times more.

Quadrobers

The subculture is popular mainly among children and adolescents aged 8 to 14. Quadrobers wear animal costumes and also imitate animal movements and behavior: walk on all fours, growl, bark and meow, climb trees and interact with fellow quadrobers as if they all were animals.[172]

Otherkin

Otherkin are a group who mentally or religiously believe themselves to be animals or have animal-like qualities either in the physical plane or a plane of psychedelic origin. Despite being commonly told otherwise by the Otherkin community, this is seen by the majority to be a sign of mental illness or a symptom of previous substance abuse or trauma.[173] [174] [175]

Therians

Therians, unlike Otherkin, do not believe themselves to be animals, instead using Quadrobatics as a form of escapism. These people normally film themselves running around in places of nature (eg. Field, Lake, Forest) acting as if they were animals. This is normally paired with a tail and a either homemade or custom order mask of the respective animal that said person thinks they are.[176]

Psychological Factors

Approximately 59.8% claim that they have not been diagnosed with any mental illnesses whilst 40.2% have been diagnosed with one or several mental illnesses.[177-180]

Schizotypy seems to be the most common mental illness among these individuals. In short, the effects of this disease include; increased levels of social anxiety and a peaked interest in solitary activities. This could make the person affected by this disease underperform in school and appear socially out of step with most people around them which can lead to teasing and bullying. This disease is more likely to develop in the teenage years.[181] [182]

Species dysphoria is essentially when you feel as though you are in a human body but you feel like an animal. Females have a higher rate of this illness than men with a ratio of 22:36.[183] [184]

It should also be noted that although these cases may seem extreme, only a few cases have been fully documented throughout decades.[185-188]

Clinical Lycanthropy

“Associated diagnoses were: schizophrenia, psychotic depression, bipolar disorder, and other psychotic disorders.”[189] [190]

“…A delusional belief in current or past transformation…”[191]

“Clinical lycanthropy is a type of delusional misidentification syndrome of the self, and it often overlaps with other delusional misidentification syndromes.”[192]

“The condition is not well-understood, but it has been associated with mental illness and substance abuse.”[193] [194]

“Individuals experiencing clinical lycanthropy may exhibit a range of symptoms, including altered perceptions of their physical appearance, behaviors associated with the believed animal transformation, and sometimes accompanying hallucinations or distressing experiences related to their delusions.”[195] [196]
